Rebels Plan To Release All Captives

Castro Says He Knew Nothing Of Kidnaping Of Men

By BOB CLARK

GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP)—A broadcast from the mountain headquarters of rebel leader Fidel Castro has ordered the release of all Americans and Canadians held by rebels in the mountain jungles near here. Five of the 50 kidnaped by bands under Castro's brother Raul were released last night.

The broadcast said Castro knew nothing about the kidnaping of 47 Americans and 3 Canadians, "due to difficulties in communications." It said Castro had ordered Raul to release the men. Raul commands rebels in the northern section of rebellious Oriente Province.

The broadcast, monitored in Puerto Rico, said: "We know they (the captives) actually were not taken as hostages but only as observers so they could see how (President Fulbright) Batista's forces kill Cuban civilians, using arms furnished by the United States."

A speedy return of more kidnaped North Americans was expected here after U.S. Consul Park Wollum came out of the hills with five captives in a U.S. Navy helicopter yesterday. Wollum returned with five of the 12 engineers seized by the rebels at the Moa Mining Co. in Northeastern Cuba last Thursday.

Darkness halted the flights, but the helicopter was readied to resume operations today. In all, the rebels kidnaped 46 Americans and 3 Canadians and spirited them into the mountains of Oriente from where Castro has carried on his guerrilla campaign. Among those seized were 29 American sailors and Marines from the Guantanamo base.

Wollum and Vice Consul Henry Wiecha were sent over the weekend to make contact with the rebels. Wiecha remained in the hills to continue negotiations. Wollum indicated those still held would be freed soon. He said he had seen a number of the men, including some servicemen, scattered in various small rebel camps. "They are all fine and in good health," he said.

Edward Cannon, 53, of Cornwall, Ont., said he was present at the conference with Raul Castro and the rebel leader — brother of Fidel — promised to stop kidnaping foreigners.

Others in the Moa group released were Henry Salmonson, 46, Portland, Ore.; Anthony Chamberlain, Coral Gables, Fla.; Howard A. Roache, Watertown, N.Y.; and William Koster, 63, Akron, Ohio.

They looked weary after five days in captivity. Some were unshaven and most wore dirt-stained clothes. But they praised their captors, and Chamberlain said a rebel doctor treated him for his chronic headaches.

Hubby To Back Mate's Foe In Congress Race

MOORHEAD, Minn. (AP)—Her husband, Andy, is opposing the bid of Mrs. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.) for nomination for re-election to Congress from Minnesota's 9th District.

Knutson announced he will support Marvin A. Evenson, 45, Moorhead, in the Democratic primary election Sept. 9. Evenson filed for the race Monday.

Knutson, operator of an Oklee cafe, was a member of the committee which persuaded Evenson to enter the contest. Mrs. Knutson filed for a return to office despite her mate's plea that her absence in Washington was tending to destroy their home life.

The mailman brought 100 letters, many containing gifts of cash. Three youngsters from Westwood, near Beverly Hills, brought $26.18 they collected in their neighborhood.

Bishops Begin World Conference In England

CANTERBURY, England (AP)—The Archbishop of Canterbury convened a world conference of Anglican bishops today and called on them to work for unity in the Christian church and peace in the world.

"This distracted world needs, desperately needs, to discover how and at what price friendship, harmony and peace among men can be had," said Dr. Geoffrey Fisher in a sermon opening the 9th Lambeth Conference in Canterbury Cathedral.

"To tell the world the answer and to live the answer among all people is the most urgent service demanded of the church."

Dr. Fisher, ranking prelate of the Church of England, spoke before 320 delegates, including 91 from the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States. The leaders represented 40 million churchmen.

The Anglican communion is made up of the English church and churches abroad which sprang from its overseas missions. The Lambeth Conference has no power to dictate to churches in the communion but its recommendations carry great influence. It is held every 10 years.

Ingrid Bergman To Be Married

LONDON (AP)—Actress Ingrid Bergman said today she will marry Swedish theatrical producer Lars Schmidt as soon as it is legally possible.

"After our marriage," said the Swedish-born actress, "we plan to live in France."

It will be her third marriage. An Italian court is expected to announce its decision shortly on the application by Roberto Rossellini, Miss Bergman's present husband, to have their marriage annulled.

Jury Convicts Top Indiana State Leaders

Pair Found Guilty Of Conspiring To Bribe State Heads

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Elmer W. (Doc) Sherwood and William E. Sayer, once top advisers in the state administration, were convicted early today of conspiring to bribe and bribing state officials in the Indiana highway scandals.

The jury in Marion County Criminal Court recommended maximum sentences of 2 to 14 years in prison and maximum fines of $15,000 — $10,000 for bribery and $5,000 for conspiracy.

Special Judge Thomas E. Garvin set sentencing for July 14 for Sherwood, Sayer and Arthur J. Mogilner, Indianapolis salesman. Mogilner was indicted with Sherwood and Sayer but pleaded guilty early in the trial and testified for the state.

Their attorneys said both will appeal. Prosecutor John G. Tindler said he made no deals with Mogilner but probably will ask the court to be lenient with him.

Sayer served as administrative assistant to former Gov. George N. Craig in the early part of Craig's administration. Sherwood, a former state adjutant general, was a top adviser of Craig.

Sayer and Sherwood were accused of conspiring to bribe and bribing Virgil W. (Red) Smith, former chairman of the State Highway Commission, in sales to the state of highway equipment totaling more than $600,000.

The sales were part of more than $1,630,000 in equipment sold to the state by Mogilner in seven deals in 1955 and 1956.

The defense contended that Mogilner hired Sherwood and Sayer as public relations representatives. Mogilner, who spent six days on the witness stand, testified that the three plotted with Smith to arrange highly profitable sales to the highway department.

Ice Cream Cones Lead To Arrest

CALTANISSETTA, Sicily (UPI)—Ten-year-old Angela Rossano broke into a neighbor's home yesterday, stole jewels and 10,000 lire ($16).

Then the youngster made the mistake that put police on her trail. She bought 125 ice cream cones.

Americans Say They'll Wait It Out

Newsman Talks With Nine Being Held In Germany

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

DRESDEN, East Germany (AP)—"We'll sweat it out as long as it takes."

This pledge came from Maj. George E. Kemper, the senior officer and spokesman for nine U.S. Army men who turned themselves in to East German police June 7 after they got lost on a helicopter flight in West Germany and ran out of gas behind the Iron Curtain. Negotiations for their release are deadlocked.

The soldiers complained at a news conference staged by East German officials Wednesday that they are being held as political hostages. "We have been treated courteously," Kemper added.

The 43-year-old artillery officer from Escondido, Calif., was able to speak to me alone for only a few minutes.

No Information

As East German officials stopped back for picture taking, Kemper hurriedly asked what was being done by the United States to obtain their release. Their only source of information has been East German newspapers.

I told him of State Department demands on Russia for their immediate release, of statements by Secretary of State Dulles of President Eisenhower's interest, and of U.S. refusal to sign an agreement with East Germany which might imply recognition of the Red regime.

"That's enough for us," Kemper said. "You can tell them we'll sweat it out as long as it takes." His lean, tense face broke into a grin.

Release Demanded

Speaking for the other seven officers and one sergeant, Kemper said, "We are soldiers and we can stay here indefinitely, but we want to know what is going on."

Alexander Gruettner, the East German Foreign Ministry official who ran the news conference, said the United States should sign a protocol similar to the one by which Belgium won release of a jet pilot who strayed into East Germany May 29.

The State Department is demanding that Russia release the Americans under the Big Four occupation agreement making the Soviets responsible for protecting Western interests in East Germany. Russia replies that this is a case for the East Germans to settle.

Youth's Worries Over Old Shoes Solved By Judge

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Alonso Pearson won't have to worry about shoes for a while.

Pearson, 19, was brought into court here Wednesday charged with attempted auto larceny.

"Your honor, I've been out of work, and I've been walking so much looking for a job my shoes are wearing out," he told the judge.

"I figured the next best thing I could do was to steal a car. That way I wouldn't have to walk so much to look for a job."

The judge said Pearson could cool his heels for three months in jail.

One-Legged Prisoner Walks To Freedom

Dulles, French Premier Might Air Weapons Ban

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles is expected to urge French Premier Charles de Gaulle this week to support efforts to work out with Russia a possible ban on nuclear weapons testing.

The United States itself has not decided firmly whether to seek a test suspension agreement, but preliminary technical talks on the possibility are under way at Geneva.

The problem of what to do about a test suspension is likely to be the most difficult to the wide ranging issues which Dulles will discuss on a flying trip to the French capital beginning tonight.

Officials said that the Dulles-De Gaulle talks will cover France's persistent economic plight marked by a shortage of foreign exchange, the Middle East crisis with emphasis on Lebanon, the North African troubles centering around Algeria, relations with Russia particularly as they involve prospects for a summit conference, and the problem of cooperation in the field of atomic energy uses.

It is on the nuclear issue and specifically the question of suspending tests that the most serious differences could arise.

France has been reported at the threshold of developing its own nuclear weapons and becoming the world's fourth atomic power—along with the United States, Britain and Russia.

Atomic weapons, however, cannot be developed without test explosions such as the Big Three in this field have already carried out. The Eisenhower administration undertook to meet this problem by proposing to share U. S. nuclear weapons secrets with its allies.

Congress passed — and Eisenhower signed Wednesday — a bill giving the administration much of the authority it asked. But Congress wrote into the bill restrictions which effectively restricted the results of weapons tests and other such highly secret information to Great Britain.

One of Dulles' handicaps in dealing with de Gaulle on this issue, therefore, is that the United States is in a position of favoring Britain above the other allies.

Hoover Arrives At World's Fair

BRUSSELS (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover arrived at Melshroek Airport today to act as President Eisenhower's special representative during three days of American national observance at the World's Fair.

Recalling his previous visits as head of war relief missions, Hoover said his coming this time "is a happy one for me, for most of my many other visits were made in time of great tribulation for the Belgian people in two terrible military invasions."

Seven Million Dollar Hotel, Club Opened In Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The top investment in this land of casinos and crap tables—a seven-million-dollar tourist attraction called the Hotel Stardust — opened Wednesday night with a Hollywood and Parisian whoopla.

Searchlights and stars like Bob Hope, Ethel Merman, Marie McConaughy and Polly Bergen hailed the opening of the strip's newest luxury hotel. It was once the dream of Tony Corneo Stralla, who operated gambling ships off the California coast in the 1930s until beached by the then Atty. Gen. Earl Warren.

Stralla died at a crap table here three years ago while trying for the hard way. His mammoth development wasted until 2,900 in the first nighters agreed.

List Names Released At Trial Today

Industrialist Says He Only Gave Xmas Gifts To The Poor

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine acknowledged today making what he called Christmas present payments to numerous White House and congressional employees. But he denied a suggestion that may explain the mysterious disposition of three-quarters of a million dollars.

He refused to give House investigators his records on the $750,000 of checks drawn on funds of his enterprises but never cashed.

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators today reported "incontrovertible proof" that Bernard Goldfine made payments to White House and congressional employees in both the present and past administrations.

Goldfine said they were for Christmas gifts to "poor workers" in the government offices, "and if that's bad I'd like to be told about it."

Goldfine, Boston industrialist and friend of presidential aide Sherman Adams, was handed a list of 37 names as a second day of hearings under oath got under way.

Goldfine said the gifts ran around $25 and the largest one went to Eugene P. Kinnaly, administrative assistant to Rep. John W. McCormack (Mass.), House Democratic leader.

Goldfine said he had known Kinnaly for many years. Robert W. Lishman, counsel for the House subcommittee investigating Goldfine's relations with Adams and with other officials and federal agencies, handed the list of 37 names to Goldfine. Lishman asked him to identify the persons.

Lishman said he was trying to find out what happened to three-quarters of a million dollars worth of Goldfine company checks that remain outstanding and still uncashed over a long period of time.

"We have records subpoenaed from the Pilgrim Trust Co. (of Boston)," Lishman said, "incontrovertible proof that Mr. Goldfine made it apparently a practice to have treasurers' checks purchased which he used for payments to various employees both past and present in the White House and on the Hill."

"The Hill" was a reference to Congress, coming from Capitol Hill.

Lishman then handed the list of 37 names to Goldfine, saying the checks may have gone to federal employees "who may have been too bashful to get them cashed."

Blast Leaves Area Of City Without Power

KEARNY, N.J. (AP)—A 25-ton transformer exploded into flames here Wednesday, leaving parts of metropolitan North Jersey without electric power for up to an hour and a half.

The fire cut off power to 400,000 customers and caused widespread delays in train service.

A spokesman for the Public Service Electric & Gas Co. said the fire at an outdoor switching station near the Hackensack River destroyed the transformer but damage was limited to equipment there. There were no injuries.

The power went off at 3:47 p.m. At that instant, trains stopped, stranding thousands of New York and New Jersey commuters. Delays ranged from a minute to an hour.

Some people were caught between floors in elevators. Traffic lights went out. Police directed rush hour traffic by hand.

Russia Offers Plan Against Bomb Attack

Unexpected Letter Sent White House; Appeal Promising

By JOHN SCALI
WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Khrushchev is reported to have proposed some new steps Russia and Western countries might take to prevent surprise bombing attacks against each other.

The Soviet leader is understood to have mentioned them in an unexpected letter he sent to President Eisenhower late Wednesday afternoon.

The State Department, after translating the 4½ page document, rushed a copy to Eisenhower Wednesday night.

Some U.S. officials were reported to regard Khrushchev's suggestions as more promising than the formerly unacceptable proposals as set forth thus far for inspection of each other's territory. While refusing to divulge details, some officials said Khrushchev's ideas, if sincere, could eventually open the door to limited East-West cooperation to guard against sudden attack.

To Ease Tension

The Soviet charge d'affaires, Sergei Striganov, ballyhooed Khrushchev's new message as "an important new initiative" by Moscow to ease dangerous East-West tensions.

He gave this description when he handed the letter to Under-Secretary of State Christian Herter Jr. but declined to provide any detail. He reported only that it covered "a new, important issue."

A State Department spokesman afterward told newsmen tersely that the Khrushchev proposals dealt with measures to prevent surprise attack.

Press officer Lincoln White noted this is a problem on which the United States has itself taken the initiative since President Eisenhower's "open skies" inspection proposal in 1955.

Earlier Plan

Russia's earlier inspection plan called for both sides to check armaments and military movement in a Central European area 800 kilometers on each of the West-East German frontier. Western nations rejected this as unacceptable on the grounds it would tend to perpetuate the division of Germany and because of other conditions the Soviets attached to the plan.

Eisenhower had proposed that the Soviets agree to an Arctic inspection zone as a starting point to allay Soviet fears that American atomic bombers on routine training flights might attack Soviet territory.

Effort Made To Halt Strike On Inquirer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Another effort was made today to settle the American Newspaper Guild strike against The Philadelphia Inquirer. Representatives of the two sides met for nine hours yesterday with federal mediators.

Federal mediator Paul Yager said he had no comment on yesterday's session. The negotiations were to resume at 10:30 a. m.

Spokesmen for the Inquirer guild said the chief obstacle to a settlement of the 33-day-old strike was still job protection provisions in the proposed contract. At issue, too, are pay and pensions.

The guild unit, representing 710 editorial and clerical employees, announced last night that the membership had adopted two resolutions.

One resolution asserted: "We all go back to work or nobody goes back to work. We reject any proposal that some guild members be fired."

The second resolution stated: "We, the rank and file members of the Inquirer unit of the guild have implicit trust in our officers and negotiators."

Spokesmen described this resolution as a reply to two guildsmen who returned to work Tuesday after posting a statement in guild and strike headquarters critical of guild leadership during the strike.

Scientists Plan Discussion On War Problems

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP)—Problems the United States would face in a limited war will be discussed by a group of scientists and engineers in a six-week conference at Lincoln Academy, Newcastle, Maine.

Announcement of the study project was made last night by the Army Proving Ground here. Sponsored by the Army Ordnance Corps, it is under the direction of the Future Weapons Systems Agency of the Ballistics Research Laboratory at Aberdeen.

The conference will be held July 15 to Aug. 29. It will include about 50 professional men from universities, industries, and the technical services of the Army.

A spokesman said one of the chief aims will be to conduct an intensive investigation of weapons to be used in a limited war.

Maj. Gen. August Schomburg, deputy chief of ordnance, will give the opening address. A keynote speech will be delivered by Maj. Gen. John B. Maderis, commanding general of the Army Ordnance Missile Command.

Senate May Restore Some Foreign Aid

House Makes Sharp Cut Of 872 Million Off Money Requests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has voted 253-126 to take what President Eisenhower called the "reckless risk" of cutting 872 million dollars off his foreign aid money requests.

The Senate may restore some of this fund. But the indicators pointed toward a possible three-quarter billion dollar final reduction under the $3,900,000,000 in new money the President originally asked.

House passage Wednesday of a $3,078,000,000 appropriations measure handed Eisenhower a stinging rebuff in his drive for "more ammunition to wage the peace." By a 2-1 margin, the House members ignored his contention that a White House news conference that their action would "encourage Communist imperialists."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty, commenting on reports of the action as a setback to Eisenhower, said:

"The President thinks the country and the free world suffered a serious setback today."

He's Appeal
Eisenhower's personally conducted campaign for more money bore fruit among House Republicans but failed to enlist many Democrats.

On a test vote to restore 75 million dollars in defense support funds, 105 Republicans and 60 Democrats voted for the larger amount. However, 74 Republicans and 140 Democrats joined to defeat the proposal.

On the final roll call, 146 Democrats and 107 Republicans voted for passage. Against were 57 Democrats and 69 Republicans.

When the Senate Appropriations Committee takes up the bill next week, it will be operating under an authorization measure which fixed a ceiling nearly 300 million dollars less than Eisenhower's request but still 597½ million above the House-passed figure.

Less Than Half
This represents the full amount the Senate could restore to the bill. But most senators thought any additions would be less than half that total.

Chairman Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.) declined to predict in advance what the Appropriations Committee will do. It will begin hearings on the bill next Tuesday.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the conference of all GOP senators, said he and other members of the committee "will make every effort to restore a substantial amount of these funds."

But Sens. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) and Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), other committee members, have said the totals would fall short of Eisenhower's goals.

Democrats indicated they will join in an effort to restore at least part of the 325 million dollars the House cut from Eisenhower's request for the development loan fund designed to help underdeveloped nations gain economic progress.

Justice Peace Dies Following Home Robbery

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Coroner Farrell Jackson of Washington County said today a 72-year-old justice of the peace died of a heart attack after being bound to a bed during a robbery in his home at nearby Hickory.

Jackson said John M. Frazier, a widower, had been dead about six hours before his body was discovered at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday by a waitress at Frazier's restaurant and service station.

Capt. Ernest C. Moore of the Washington state police barracks described the case as robbery and murder.

Pennsylvania law holds that a death resulting from the commission of a felony is murder.

Texas 'Army' Ready Fight Cuban Rebels

GLADEWATER, Tex. (UPI)—Martin McCada, an east Texas oilman son of a famed Texas sheriff, today offered President Eisenhower the services of his private "army" to "straighten out the Cuban mess."

McCada, a 61-year-old one-time constable, made the offer in a telegram to Eisenhower. He said his 24-man army of rugged Texans is waiting only for an okay from the White House.

McCada said he could forgive the government for tolerating the insults from Cuban Rebel leader Fidel Castro because of "diplomatic complications" but that his army can move to the rescue without involving the United States.

The fashion show was arranged by Miss Doris B. Washington, staff psychologist in charge of the institution's group therapy program.

The clothes were provided by a national mail order house. They were low-cost copies of high fashions, ranging from a trapeze gown to a chemise shortie nightgown.

The organist was Miss Alice M. Blum, Reformatory superintendent. The mistress of ceremonies who extracted the comments from the audience was Marilyn L., an inmate who wrote the commentary herself and was congratulated on her performance.

"There are some nice dresses," one inmate said. "But what's the use of seeing what you can't have."

Another referred to the 10 cents a day that inmates are paid for their labor and said: "What can you buy with that?"

Despite the make-believe and evident impracticability for some, the show was enthusiastically received.

Fashion Show Goes Over With Laugh At Reformatory

JESSUP, Md. (AP)—A model stepped onto the flagstone terrace in one of the latest fashions and pirouetted to the accompaniment of organ music.

"Can't you see that at the race track?" the commentator asked the women in the audience. They answered with horse laughs.

Another model appeared. "She looks like she's all set for that special date," the commentator said.

"... in 1959 maybe," a member of the audience suggested in a loud voice.

The 150 women watching the models parade past were inmates of the Maryland Reformatory for Women. They realized all too well that the fashions on display may be out of style before they are free to shop and dress as they please.

For the present, however, the inmates will wear simple cotton dresses made in the prison workshop.

Deacons Run Up White Flag, Build New Church

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—A minister and those who use the heavens reached an agreement. The U. S. Air Force gave the Rev. Bob Jackson—under certain circumstances—the right to tell it when its planes could fly and when they couldn't.

The little rural community Baptist Church didn't mind at first when Dyess Air Force Base aimed its runway at the small, long-established church building. After all, propeller-driven planes don't make too much noise.

Then came the jets. The base added more and more craft. After a few Sundays of sitting there, more shaken "sound than sermon," the congregation's leaders told the air base authorities their woes.

The Air Force sent a couple of officers to listen to a sermon. They agreed it was a deafening experience.

The Air Force agreed to telephone the Rev. Mr. Jackson and ask permission for mass flights to take off except in emergencies.

One night the pastor received a call from a major in charge of a flight of 15 planes from another base.

"Say," the major shouted, "the tower tells me I've got to clear with you before I can take off."

The Rev. Mr. Jackson patiently explained the agreement.

"Well," said the major, haltingly, "is it all right if we leave?" He got permission.

But the agreement didn't pan out. During a recent revival 27 jets were forced to take off in a 30-minute period in the middle of services. The pastor described the visiting evangelist as a nervous wreck.

When the first huge KC135 jet tanker came over, the deacons ran up a white flag and broke ground for a new church three miles from the runway.

Finally, a desperate reporter asked, "Mr. Goldfine, to what do you attribute your rosy checks?"

"Walking," Goldfine replied happily.

The newsmen bored in. Did he walk as much as former President Harry Truman?

"I walk faster," Goldfine said. Then the questioning got around to Adams again and Sears went back into action.

As Sears steered his client out of the room, Goldfine told the hovering reporters: "You are all fine gentlemen."

Hurrah A Typhoon
TOKYO—(UPI)—The Yomiuri News in drought-stricken Tokyo printed a report of a new typhoon today under the headline, "Hurrah! A Typhoon."

BALTIMORE (AP)—More than 17,000 Maryland veterans of the Korean War have entered into some form of training under Veterans Administration jurisdiction.

R. T. Brown, manager of the VA regional office here, announced that 17,229 or 23.9 per cent of 72,000 eligible Korean veterans have begun training.

Brown said 7,910 have entered institutions of higher learning, 5,774 enrolled in schools below college level, 3,303 began on-the-job training and 242 took training on the farm.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Independence Day

BEFORE THE SUN sets tomorrow, some millions of cases of soda pop will be consumed at picnics and cookouts across the nation. Traffic casualties in the hundreds will have begun the long weekend climb toward a ghastly total rivaling that caused by a fair-size war. Several persons will have maiming injuries to prove that in some places it's possible to buy fireworks for private use. Other scores of holiday-makers will die or be crippled in numerous other fun-inspired activities. "Seventy-six trombones" will huzzah in a hundred times 76 parades. The summer season will reach its mid-point to a sun-baked, beach-jammed, ill-tempered tempo of "we-gotta-have-fun-on-our-day-off" attitude. A relative handful of the population will pause to savor the preciousness of the event the holiday commemorates. Recall: this is July 4th. Independence Day. The nation's birthday.

THIS IS THE YEAR 1958 and it was one hundred and eighty four years ago that a document was signed which gave July Fourth its significance in American history. That document was the Declaration of Independence in which the American colonists threw off the yoke of British government and set about the task of forming a new nation, responsible only to itself. That document, somewhat faded, but still intact and legible, is cherished among the precious relics of our country. It is, on formal occasions, pointed out to school children and they are told of its meaning. But we are afraid that all too many Americans have forgotten the real significance of the Fourth of July; that it is Independence Day and that on it we should fittingly celebrate the event which has resulted in the growth of what is now the greatest nation on earth. There was a time when such celebrations were held, but like the Memorial Day observance, which we had occasion to mention in this column a little more than a month ago, it has become largely a day when work can be forgotten and armies of people take to the roads in motor cars, travelling distances undreamed of a generation ago when travel presented difficulties and must be given careful thought and consideration.

THE SOCIAL ASPECTS of the modern Independence Day are not to be frowned upon. They bring pleasure to vast numbers and we may even say they knit families more closely together. We are glad that here in Maryland, one aspect of the older celebrations is forbidden by law. This is fireworks. Through this law children are being protected from serious injury, including blindness, and nerves are saved the shock of explosives. But we do believe that the day should mean something more than picnics and motor tours. Some thought should be given to the blessings the American people enjoy and which were brought to them through the determined and daring action of those who not only declared their independence from England, but fought a long and grueling war to achieve that goal. Times change, of course, and people change with them. What stood out boldly on the horizon of yesterday, is not so large today. We take many things for granted. Too much so perhaps, for our own good. So go ahead and enjoy yourselves tomorrow, but as you do so call to mind the fact that you are really celebrating the birthday of your country. Surely it is worth a few minutes of our time to reflect on the occasion that gives us the right to pursue the happiness we chase with such single minded zeal.

Why Secret Trial?

WHY WERE FORMER Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and Gen. Pal Malter tried in secret before their execution—assuming that they were tried at all? One good guess is that neither Nagy nor Malter would confess. If this was indeed the case, then a public trial would have exposed the frameup and revealed that the Kremlin was the real accuser behind this fraud. The Soviet dictator, Khrushchev, was able to have these men killed. But he dared not allow them to be tried in public. Khrushchev, in short, was incapable of carrying out this murderous and bloody fraud in the clear light of day. For he cannot allow the truth to be known. His major enemy is the truth.

Still Going Strong

"And The Rest Is Silence"—Barney

WASHINGTON — Washington has not seen anything quite like Bernard Goldfine's lawyer-blank arrival in Washington since President Calvin Coolidge appointed a fellow-Vermont, John Sargent, to be his Attorney General.

Coolidge was having trouble with the Teapot Dome scandals and he charged Sargent not to talk to reporters. Sargent took this admonition literally, refusing to reply even when an exasperated reporter who had found himself in the small hours at Union Station for nothing said: "Well, your name is John Sargent, isn't it?"

MR. GOLDFINE was met by one of his Boston attorneys, Samuel P. Sears, who snapped at reporters that his client was saying "absolutely nothing." When one suggested that Mr. Goldfine might say something simple, "like you're glad to be in Washington," Sears waved his arms and shouted "No, no!"

Lawrence Cohen, another Goldfine lawyer from Boston, had already made it official that his client—or perhaps one should say "their client" since Goldfine seems to have more lawyers than Carter has pills—is "a terrible witness."

It tried to give some new benefit to almost every group of farmers in the country. The only crops omitted were tobacco and peanuts, whose planters didn't want or couldn't agree on what more they wanted.

The House bill tried to put over the discredited two-price plan for wheat. It proposed mandatory barter for surplus crop disposal. It would have imposed new controls on milk and feed grain production.

In addition to all this, the House bill would have increased Department of Agriculture expenditures by an estimated billion dollars a year for the next several years.

THIS IS WHY Benson called the bill "an economic monstrosity and a political hedgepodge."

By refusing even to consider the bill and by turning their deaf ears on Democratic leaders' appeals to try to amend the bill into acceptable shape, a majority of the congressmen showed unmistakably that they thought Ezra was right this time.

What future this action for-bodes on farm legislation in the remainder of this session is uncertain.

While the House Agriculture Committee was playing political football with the farm issue in this fashion, several much-needed programs were running close to their expiration dates.

Among them are the agricultural surplus disposal program and the school, veterans and armed services milk programs. They were to end June 30, unless renewed. Also there's the National Wool Act, but it runs until next spring.

The Senate, taking a much saner approach to the farm situation, has already approved separate bills renewing these programs.

THE SENATE Agriculture Committee has also reported out another farm bill which would come closer to meeting Secretary Benson's and President Eisenhower's repeated requests for lower and more flexible price supports and freer planting for cotton, corn, feed grain and rice farmers.

If the House could be persuaded to act on these Senate measures, the situation might not be so bad. But the lack of coordination between the Senate and House Agriculture committees this year has been notable.

If the House committee now goes into a sulky because of the shellacking its omnibus bill took, action could be delayed.

The House Agriculture committee might try to bring in a new bill of its own. But in the end it is now expected to approve the Senate bill and let it go at that.

What all these shenanigans prove, if anything, is that first and foremost it's nonsense to try to write new farm programs in election years. They always get in trouble.

THE MORE basic consideration is that the farm problem—like foreign policy and the tariff—should no longer be considered a political issue. It is something that requires a bipartisan or non-partisan approach as a business proposition and a question of sound economics.

The fundamental idea that Secretary Benson has been trying to put over is that the continued piling up of huge, multibillion dollar agricultural surpluses that can't be sold or even given away does not make economic sense.

For this stand the secretary has taken an unmerciful, personal political beating. But a few victories like he has just scored in the House might indicate that things were beginning to go his way.

NO PRICE RAISE — According to a statement made by a representative of the baking firms of Cumberland, as far as known now and effective July 1, there will be no increase in the price of bread locally despite taxes imposed on wheat products, effective July 2. The price of a standard 15-ounce loaf will continue at nine cents retail, or eight cents wholesale.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—You can see the difference between Hollywood and Broadway any night in the week except Sunday, by going to the stage door of "West Side Story." The dancers in that show come to work on scooters, the dancers in Hollywood go to work in Thunderbirds. But any income tax agent can tell you that the Broadway kids are on better terms with Uncle Sam and so can any car financing outfit.

I DON'T KNOW too much about what the Arab world has in mind or what it wants from the French or where it is headed, but if I wanted to give a girl something unusual in jewelry without fracturing my wallet I'd buy her some of the hand-drawn silver pieces turned out in the huts of the men who live in the Atlas Mountains. Most of the pieces are talismanic in design, but effective.

I also might buy her mother a rug, choosing according to her nature. In the High Atlas sheep produce short wool which is fine in texture and takes brilliant dyes with almost jewel-like coloration. In the foothills, different forage leads to softer, longer fibres which tend to take color erratically but interestingly. The Middle Atlas wool produces shaggy rugs which take only cream and white, or dark brown, dyes, but last forever.

How does a man in New York get to know all that? Easy. You share a shishlik with an Arab in a small, less than immaculate little restaurant hidden down on the East Side.

THINGS MAY be quiet out your way, but in many suburban communities around New York Le Symphonie d'Ashecan is a three-week program. Which is why a bright young man who thought of wrapping a discarded innertube around the base of each of his ashecan is a popular fellow in his town and may end up being Mayor or something.

He gets the tubes from gas stations and stretches them over the bottom edges of the cans and when he lets go they contract to make a tight noise-killing rubber sleeve.

MENTION HERE the other day of a growing use of Italian idiom among the people of show business causes David Steinberg of Newark, New Jersey, to say that there is a reason: descendants of immigrant peoples rise and fall at different times in the United States and, currently, there is a rise of Italianate peoples in and around show business.

For awhile Irish was ascendant, then German, then Jewish. He points out that Guy Biondi of the Michael Todd Company, although Italian, came into show business during the Jewish ascendancy and, hence, speaks more Jewish idiom than Italian.

Doubting his claim that Italians were on the rise in the theatre, I frowned at M. Steinberg, who replied: "I'll give you one show, one only. 'A Hatful of Rain.' Author, Mike Gazzo, of Hillside, N. J. Star, Ben Gazzara, New York Director, Frank Corsaro. Featured player, Tony Franciosa. And the singers! Como, LaRosa, Sinatra, Martin, Bennett, Desmond, Dale, Martino, and try to count the number of currently popular songs in English with Italian origins. Or the Italian movie stars popular here. Okay, paisan?" Okay, goomba.

ONE OF NEW YORK'S best-dressed men, a fellow constantly cited as being impeccable in dress at all times, has confided in a moment of truth that his collection of 42 pairs of shoes contains not one pair which cost him more than $9—and adds that his collection of summer bucks in a variation of tones from charcoal to caramel buff cost exactly $2.98 per pair at a chain store.

"The point is never to wear the same pair more than once in a week," he whispered. "Otherwise they lose their shape faster than a dunked doughnut."

The same Arab who told of the various grades of rugs available from different altitudes in the Atlas Mountains also told of the present project to translate the Arabic Bible into modern Arabic with Arabic letters. He said it would be done in five more years, for a total of eight years of work.

Incidentally, he pointed out that it has been proved beyond question that Christ and the disciples all spoke in Aramaic. And if you want the real name of Gabriel Sionita, credited with most of the work in the 1945 version, it was Jibra'il al-Sahyuni al-Hadani al-Hadani.

The Unanswered Question

WASHINGTON — Everybody now seems to agree that on a beautiful spring morning, May 10, 1935, to be exact, Sherman Adams left the White House for a secret confab at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel with Bernard Goldfine and Horace, his son.

The question unanswered so far is what did they talk about? The proper way to tailor a vicuna overcoat? How to borrow an Oriental rug? Or something more mysterious still?

What seemed to pain the investigating Congressmen was the fact that Sherman never spends much time with lawgivers. Mostly they even have trouble getting him on the telephone.

saying. After all, said Fox, he was no eavesdropper.

THEN HE WENT back to his room again and spent 30 minutes just sitting there. Thirst beset him once more and back he went to the kitchenette for another snort. He still heard the voices.

He said he returned to his room the second time and after another 20 minutes or so, Goldfine came down and told him he could join the party. This he did.

The flagon of martinis must have been getting low, but Fox said that Goldfine stood up, poured drinks around, and proposed a toast to Adams, the man who never let down his friends.

"WAS HE kidding, or was he serious?" inquired Rep. O'Hara. Fox said he was in a jovial, social mood. "And I don't quite remember how I expressed myself," he added, "but I asked him something about what he meant about Adams not letting down his friends."

"Adams grabbed him by the arm, took him to a corner of the room and told him not to talk too much."

"Could you hear this?" asked Rep. O'Hara.

"Not every word," said Fox, "but it was obvious he was telling Goldfine to keep his mouth shut."

FOX NEVER did learn what the White House official and the New England woolen mill owner discussed while he was in the back room, pouring martinis. As this is written the Congressmen are about to ask Goldfine what this confidential discussion was about. Later they may ask Adams.

I trust, myself, the subject will turn out to be whether a vicuna overcoat should be double-breasted or single, and what color or squiggles look best on a borrowed rug.

Reporter's Notebook

By LARRY ALLEN
For Hal Boyle

QUITO, Ecuador—Ecuador is celebrating the 50th anniversary of the "Andean roller coaster," a railroad that provides an exciting ride.

The 287-mile line links this capital city, over 9,000 feet up in the towering Andes, with the bustling port of Guayaquil on the Pacific.

Its completion 50 years ago marked a turning point in the unification of this republic by opening a vast territory for agricultural and industrial development.

It was long the dream of Eloy Alfaro, Ecuador's president at the turn of the century.

TWO VIRGINIANS, the brothers Archer and John Harman, made the dream come true after British financiers put up 17 million dollars.

Archer Harman was a financier and his brother a military engineer.

They had to construct much of the line in a zig-zag course, and build many tunnels and bridges to get around the Andean peaks ranging from 14,000 to 28,000 feet.

A few years ago, 36 hours were required to make the trip, with frequent changes of engines. Improved equipment has cut the time to 11 hours.

Passenger trains leave Quito at 7 a. m., and arrive in Guayaquil at 6 p. m.

First stop in Latacunga. Nearby are the volcano of Cotopaxi, 19,613 feet, and peaks capped with eternal snows. Cotopaxi marks the first crossing of the Andes. This bleak and cold region is the land of the largest living bird, the condor.

The next station, Ambato, is situated in a rich agricultural region at an altitude of 8,431 feet. It is the center of vegetable and fruit production.

Riobamba shows up next after a gradual climb to the highest point on the line at Urbina Pass—11,841 feet.

AFTER RIOBAMBA, the train goes over narrow gorges and through many tunnels.

Before reaching Haigra, it climbs the famous Nariz del Diablo—Devil's Nose—a perpendicular ridge rising out of the gorge of the Chanchan River to 1,000 feet.

This almost insurmountable engineering obstacle was finally conquered when a series of switchbacks was built on a 5½ per cent grade.

There's a steady descent after the train recrosses the Chanchan River, creeping along a narrow ledge between mountains and canyons.

It took 10 years to build the railroad.

WASHINGTON — By resorting to the most barefaced parliamentary horseplay attempted hereabouts in a long time, the nine Republican members of Indiana's Congressional delegation dodged a dreaded fate the other day. Using House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack as their not entirely-innocent dupe, the GOP Hoosiers escaped having to mingle with other Republicans.

The wily nine staged a great pretense of longing to attend the Republican State Convention in Indianapolis, although they secretly wanted no part of it whatsoever. They knew the convention was to nominate Gov. Harold W. Handley for the Senate and they desired to appear guiltless of direct complicity.

The reason for their skittishness was that Handley has served only 1½ years of his four-year term, and a lot of Indiana voters feel that he is running out on a contract. The Congressmen didn't care to fight the powerful, patronage-dispensing Governor, but they feared it might impair their own election chances this Fall if they appeared too closely connected with the deal.

THEY WERE plotting how to get out of going to Indianapolis when the Democratic opposition provided them with a heaven-sent excuse. Majority Leader McCormack announced the Farm Bill would be brought to the floor the same day that the nominating vote was to be taken in Indianapolis.

Hugging themselves with relief, but pretending to be desolate with disappointment, the nine made tongue-in-cheek appeal to McCormack to put off the Farm Bill. The Majority Leader had more than a suspicion of the truth, but he went along with the act. He voiced deep sympathy, but said he couldn't stay the wheels of legislative progress.

The Hoosiers, headed by Rep. Charles P. Halleck, put on such a show of agony they wrung many innocent hearts. Halleck even went so far as to arise on the floor of the House and remark lugubriously:

"Well, all I can say is, of course, that I shall stay on. As against the convention and our attending there, this matter of farm legislation is of transcending importance, and I just wanted the membership of the House to know what the situation is and to express my regret that this sort of situation has developed."

The other Indiana Republicans—Reps. F. Jay Nimitz, E. Ross Adair, John V. Beamer, William G. Bray, Earl Wilson, Ralph Harvey, Charles B. Brownson and Mrs. Cecil M. Harden—managed to look unconcerned too, although Brownson couldn't repress a snicker. They left the chamber moaning that they were the victims of cruel fate.

THEY HAD BARELY gotten back to their offices, however, when word arrived from the Majority Leader that they had been saved at the eleventh hour. The Massachusetts Democrat said the Farm Bill could not be taken up until long after the Indianapolis convention was over because the Rules Committee unaccountably had failed to okay it for consideration on the floor.

Halleck rounded up his delegation. They returned to McCormack's office and argued there must be other legislation as pressing as the Farm Bill. McCormack said he was powerless to bring anything to the floor without a rule from the Rules Committee.

All seemed hopelessly lost, with the unhappy nine doomed to have to go to Indianapolis, when word came that they had been saved once again. The railroad relief bill was to come to the floor.

They moaned again that relieving the railroads was more important to Indiana than nominating a senator—and remained in Washington gloating with disappointment.

Gov. Handley didn't miss their votes too much. He received better than a three-to-one shoo-in.

WSCS Guests At Picnic, Hymn Sing

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Grace Methodist Church met Tuesday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCracken, Patterson Creek, W. Va.

A picnic supper was served. Rev. Robert Nimmon gave the invocation.

A hymn sing was led by James G. Stevenson. The program "World Federation of Methodist Women" was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Nimmon.

Gifts were brought to be sent to Conference Missionaries for the "Christmas in July" missionary project. Miss Gertrude Ranck presided over the business session. The secretary's report was read by Mrs. John Park and Mrs. Howard McCracken gave the treasurer's report.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCracken, Norman McCracken, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Park, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Long, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stevenson, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Nimmon, Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Burke, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tour Precedes Picnic Of Double M Club

The Double M Club held its regular meeting a recent night in the form of a picnic at Minkes Cottage Inn. Preceding the picnic all members toured the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company.

A short business meeting was held with Harold Hawkins presiding. Robert Webster reported that silverware had been presented to the Fairview Avenue Church and all candy any members had should be turned in at once.

It was decided to have another picnic in July at the Constitution Park.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zucker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maxey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John Groves, Mrs. Miriam Webster, Mrs. Donna Easton, Mrs. Hilda Hawkins and a guest Mrs. Mary Kline.

Arlington D. Nield, RD 1, Ridgeley, is a patient in Baker VA Center, Martinsburg, W. Va., having been admitted Tuesday.

The ninth Rowan Family Reunion will be held July 13 at the Colanese Picnic grounds. All relatives and friends are welcome to attend.

MR. AND MRS. WYLLYS W. ROBERTSON

Mr., Mrs. W. W. Robertson Mark 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wyllys W. Robertson, former residents of Cumberland, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with an open house at their home, 209 Boyd Avenue, Winchester, Va., on June 14.

Their three daughters, Mary Jane and LaVonne Robertson, and Mrs. Betty Lou Conner were hostesses.

Mrs. Robertson is the former Miss Bernice Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Reynolds, this city. Mr. Robertson is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William F. Robertson, also of Cumberland.

The couple married on June 14, 1933 at Kingsley Methodist Church here, with the Rev. William Lewis officiating.

Mr. Robertson, a long time employee of the American Railway Express Company at Cumberland is presently manager of the Railway Express Company at Winchester. He was transferred there something over a year ago.

Among the many friends and relatives attending the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Young, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lewis, and son, Mrs. E. E. Gulletley and sons, and Mrs. Lucille I. Krampf. Mrs. Young, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Gulletley and Mrs. Krampf are sisters of Mr. Robertson. Mrs. Gulletley resides in Massapequa Park, New York.

Bean Presses Investigation Of Hopemont

Moorefield Senator Says He Has Enough Data In His Files

CHARLESTON (AP) — Senate President Ralph J. Bean counter-charged yesterday that Institutions Commissioner Harold E. Neely has enough information in his own files to warrant an investigation at Hopemont Sanitarium.
Neely and his assistant, Miss Elizabeth Hallanan, accused Bean of endangering morale at the sanitarium by not keeping an appointment with them about allegations concerning it he made during the special session of the Legislature.
Bean told the Senate that the Joint Committee on Government and Finance should investigate the reported misuse of state property at Hopemont and illicit affairs of two members of the staff.
A conference between Bean and Neely was arranged for last Thursday. Bean said he failed to show up because bad weather conditions prevented him from flying in from his home in Moorefield.

Miss Hallanan then charged that he had "refused to shed any light upon the allegations."
But Bean said yesterday that Neely had told him during a telephone conversation that the institutions commission had received complaints about Hopemont similar to those brought before the Senate.
Bean added that a three-person committee had reported abuses at the sanitarium to him after concluding they could not get Neely to act.
Later complaints have been made to him by letter since his address to the Senate, Bean said. He promised he would present the whole matter to the interim committee of which he is co-chairman.

Child Killed In Accident At Parsons

PARSONS — A five-year-old local girl was killed yesterday afternoon in the yard of her home when the swing on which she was playing with her 12-year-old sister overturned.

The child, Linda Lou Knicley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Knicley, Kohler Street, died instantly when a large lawn swing overturned and the pipe support of the swing struck her on the head.

The accident occurred about 2 p. m. as Linda and her sister were playing on a swing. There were no eyewitnesses except the sister.

Mrs. Knicley, inside the home, heard the screams of the older child and rushed outside to find Linda lying under the swing which the older child was trying to lift off her.

A physician pronounced the child dead of a crushed skull when he was summoned to the scene.

The child was born July 10, 1952, in Parsons, a daughter of Warren B. and Dottie (Williams) Knicley.

Also surviving are her sister, Dorothy Louise; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Anna Williams, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Flora Knicley, all of Parsons.

The body is at the Greenleaf Funeral Home. It will be taken to Parsons EUB Church for services Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Bill Angel, pastor, will officiate and burial will be in Parsons City Cemetery.

Newlin Promoted To Supervisor At Luke Plant

LUKE — The promotion of James L. Newlin to the new position of general supervisor of maintenance crafts at the Luke mill of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company has been announced by George M. Griffith, maintenance superintendent.

A native of Westernport, Newlin joined the Luke mill forces in September 1951 as an engineer trainee in the Power Department and six months later became a technical assistant to other maintenance crafts. For the past year he has been a member of the Maintenance Department staff.

Newlin, a son of Simon P. Newlin, Winfield Road, Cumberland, and the late Barbara E. Newlin, was graduated from Pennsylvania Avenue High School in Cumberland in 1936, and in 1951 received his Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering from West Virginia University.

He served six years in the Army and Air Force, entering the service in 1940 and being separated as a captain in the Air Force in 1946. He presently is a major in the Air Force Reserve. Prior to 1940 he was employed as a test engineer for the Potomac Edison Company at Cumberland. Newlin is married to the former Miss Evelyn L. Lechlitter of Cumberland. They live at 92 Spring Street, Keyser, with their two children, Timothy Earl, 4½, and Alice Ruth, 7 months.

Keyser GOP Hears Talk By Revercomb

WEIRTON (AP)—Former State Senate President Arnold M. Vickers told Hancock County Democrats last night that recovery was moving at snail's pace because of poor national and state leadership.

Vickers is a candidate for Democratic nomination for the short-term U. S. Senate seat at stake this year.

"Weak, half-hearted recommendations by the chief executive of our state and our country, coupled with poor leadership, are making our economy so sterile that recovery from the recession—if, indeed, there is any recovery—is moving at a snail's pace," he said.

Elsewhere, a candidate for reelection to the Senate declared his support of the administration's mutual security program.

Sen. Chapman Revercomb (R-WVa.) told a three-county meeting of Republican women's clubs at Keyser:

"I am convinced that had we not entered into alliances with friendly nations, had we not extended military aid to those countries resisting aggression, the Communist dictatorship would now extend over a much larger part of the world.

"Although I do not like the costly foreign policy we follow, I am convinced that any weakening of the western alliance will inevitably increase the dangers of war. "It is a policy of necessity.

"It is only through collective action that we can hope to prevent further aggression in the world," Revercomb continued.

"Should the western alliance be permitted to fall apart, the security of this country and other free nations would be endangered as never before."

Promotion Announced

LUKE—Norman B. Baughman of 220 West Fairview Street, Piedmont, has been promoted to the newly created position of supervisor, central stores, at the Luke mill of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, according to George M. Griffith, maintenance superintendent.

Baughman has been employed at the mill for 25 years, the last 20 of which have been in stores administration with the Maintenance Department.

A native of Piedmont, Baughman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Baughman of Westernport. He attended Piedmont High School at Westernport and studied mechanical engineering at Potomac State College, Keyser, attending night school there for two years. He served in the Navy for 18 months during World War II.

Baughman is married to the former Miss Grace Morrison of Piedmont. They have one son, Blake, 19, who was graduated from Potomac State College this year. He plans to enter West Virginia University in the fall.

Frostburg Pool Attendance High

FROSTBURG—The Frostburg swimming pool has had an average attendance of over 400 per day this week, according to Ellsworth Filer, manager. The attendance during June was below average due to the cool weather.

Filtering equipment at the pool has been overhauled and grounds put in shape for the expected record crowd tomorrow.

No tables or areas are being reserved.

Three lifeguards will be on duty at all times during the summer. They are David McFarland, Charles Crowe and Jack Croft.

Bath house facilities are on a self service basis with all patrons asked to check money and valuables at the refreshment stand at no additional cost. Concession stand operators are Blanche Filer and Dorothy Elrick.

At the present time the pool is also being used in the mornings for pilot swimming lessons sponsored by the Board of Education under the supervision of Robert Pence and Miss Maureen Manley. Students from Eckhart Elementary School are receiving lessons. If classes prove successful this season, the county may inaugurate regular lessons in the future summers.

Frostburg Girl Scouts will use the facilities at the pool and grounds for their annual day camp to be conducted the latter part of July. The annual Williams family reunion will be held there July 27.

Woman Hurt In Fall Down Porch Steps

FROSTBURG — Mrs. William Kerr, 302 Welsh Hill, was admitted to Miness Hospital for observation after falling down the back porch steps of her home.

X-rays are being taken today to determine the extent of her injuries. Her husband, a retired postal carrier, is a medical patient at the hospital.

Health Department Orders Sewer Line At Westernport

WESTERNPORT — The State Department of Health has ordered the Town of Westernport to install a sewer line in the Green's Addition area near Jake's Place.

Notice of the order from Perry Prather, Baltimore, stated: "The absence of a sanitary sewer at this location is a menace to public health." The matter was taken under consideration at last night's meeting of the Mayor and Council.

The eight-line line will extend 1,550 feet. Plans and specifications, along with a survey by engineers, have been completed.

Previous work was delayed pending approval from the Western Maryland Railway since the line will run under railroad tracks to Georges Creek.

Town officials authorized the purchase of 25 new water meters.

Award Presented The Westernport Chiropractic Office has been presented the Chiropractic Achievement Award by the International Basic Technique Research Institute. Dr. Lowell Williams was given the award in St. Louis for Dr. Neil Williams and himself.

The award represents work for the past five years in spinal correction. A similar award was given the Westernport duo last year in the child spinal correction classification.

Dr. and Mrs. Lowell Williams traveled to Kansas City where they visited friends of Mrs. Williams family before returning home.

Others attending the convention were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Geary, originally from Frostburg, now of Marietta, Ohio; and Jack Fisher, West Main Street, Frostburg, who will graduate from Logan Chiropractic College next month.

City Workers Get Pay Hike

KEYSER — All salaried city employees were granted an across-the-board 10 per cent increase in pay at Tuesday's meeting of the Mayor and Council. It is the first wage boost for city employees in more than two years.

The Mayor and Council members are not included in the increase, which was effective as of July 1.

At Tuesday's meeting, the first of the fiscal year, Mayor Richard E. Romig reappointed the three councilmen to their posts in the city administration. Paul D. Peters was reappointed finance commissioner; Raymond L. Murray water commissioner, and Lester H. Oates, street commissioner.

A contract for the purchase of parking meters that will be put on both sides of North Main Street, between East Piedmont and Armstrong Streets, when that portion of the street will be made one-way north, was signed. The contract calls for the purchase of 32 double meters and 21 single ones.

Contest Tomorrow Ten Keyser girls have been selected to compete in the 1958 Miss Civil Air Patrol beauty pageant tomorrow in Moorefield High School at 8 p. m. (EST).

Local contestants are Louise Slaggs, Sharon Wilson, Donna Ashenfelter, Agnes Dayton, Rita Barbera, Joyce Thrush, Dorothy Keeseecker, Peggy Ann Oates, Julia Cook and Patricia Pat Ryan.

Mrs. Jerry Kuykendall, contest director, announced that for the first time the entrants will appear in bathing suits. The queen selected will receive a gold loving cup and a wristwatch.

The first installation of a steam turbine by a public utility was at Hartford, Conn., in April, 1901.

Calhoun Files For Supreme Court Post

CHARLESTON (AP)—The Democratic field seeking the judicial seat of the late Supreme Court Judge James B. Riley increased officially to four today.

The certificates of Circuit Judge Harlan M. Calhoun of Moorefield and Oden Frazier Goshorn, 41-year-old Charleston attorney, were filed in the Secretary of State's office.

Harold A. Bangert of Charleston, former assistant State Attorney General, previously had filed his notice. He already was a candidate in the Democratic primary for another Supreme Court vacancy.

The fourth to enter the Democratic contest was Circuit Judge K. K. Hall of Madison.

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Underwood today appointed Morgantown attorney Robert Tucker Donley to the State Supreme Court vacancy created by the death last Sunday of Judge James B. Riley.

Boy Found Dead In Pool

BALTIMORE (AP)—With the temperatures in the 90s, the Speake brothers of suburban Catonsville went swimming in a West Baltimore pool yesterday.

A few hours later 10-year-old Kenneth was dead. Other swimmers found his body floating in the adult section of the pool which is separated from the children's section by a floating cable.

The victim's older brother, Thomas Jr., said he lost track of his brother in the large crowd of swimmers.

Conservation, Pollution Solution Seen Necessary

BALTIMORE (AP)—The director of the State Department of Research and Education has warned that Maryland must resolve the conflicting demands of seafood conservation and water pollution.

Appearing before a Legislative Council committee yesterday, Dr. L. Eugene Cronin said the state's seafood industry is worth as much as 12 million dollars a year. But he said recreation demands are rising. 750 industries are discharging waste into state waters, and other commercial uses are on the increase.

"What we are trying to achieve is a balance among these things," Cronin said.

Cronin was one of several witnesses to testify at a hearing on two legislative proposals to abolish the Water Pollution Control Commission and merge its functions into those of the Health Department.

The General Assembly has twice rejected the plan since the pollution control commission was formed 11 years ago.

Cronin suggested that both the Health Department and the Water Pollution Control Commission should be strengthened, but added that he didn't care if the ultimate solution to the problem required as many as three agencies.

"We need to look at the whole question of what Maryland has to do in the next 20 years to bring this problem under control," he said.

Price Of Land For Park High

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Legislative Council committee was told yesterday that Maryland will have to spend about $1,600,000 to purchase 10,000 acres of land for a proposed park in Baltimore County's Big Gunpowder River area.

Director I. Alvin Pasarew of the State Planning Commission said the purchase plan would span 10 to 20 years, with about $100,000 expected to be asked for in next year's capital improvements budget.

Pasarew said the projected cost is for land acquisition and does not include development of the park area.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

The Key To Freedom

By J. EDGAR HOOVER

Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

Next Friday belongs to the U.S. alone. It's a day to remember what T.R. once told Americans

The year was 1776. The Continental Congress, meeting in Philadelphia, adopted the Declaration of Independence. In that moment, the affirmation of freedom from tyranny for the New World was recorded. In signing the document, the 56 American patriots also knowingly accepted the risk inherent in winning freedom.

On freedom's altar, they—in Jefferson's words—pledged, "... our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor."

The action of those men made government of the people a reality. It also made each one of us accountable for the continuation of free government.

Since that beginning, no one, I think, has set forth the responsibility of the individual more plainly than did that vigorous patriot, Theodore Roosevelt:

"... we are the government, you and I."
"You and I." Those words hold the key. You and I, as individuals, are responsible for the successes and failures of America. What we do, or fail to do, as citizens, will add up to the strength or the weakness of our nation.

Plans Ready August 1 For New Church

Work On St. Luke's Expected To Start Early In September

Plans for the new edifice of St. Luke's Lutheran Church in the 1600-block of Frederick Street will be ready by August 1, Rev. William R. Snyder, pastor, announced today. It is hoped that all bids will be submitted by the end of August and that construction will be started in the first part of September.

Rev. Mr. Snyder reported that the three-year financial drive for building funds ended on Monday.

18-Month Drive Started

William Armbruster, treasurer of the building fund, said $168,500 was received during the campaign headed by Frank Spoerl. This week an 18-month fund drive was started with $70,000 as the goal. With two-thirds of the members contacted, $45,000 has already been pledged, he added. Wilbur Sills, chairman of the building committee, reported that working drawings for the structure have been completed.

The drawings for the plumbing, heating and electrical work are being done locally and will be ready for the bidding that will start August 1.

The total cost of the sanctuary and educational building wing is expected to be approximately $425,000, Rev. Mr. Snyder said.

The edifice and its wing will front 222 feet along Frederick Street. The architecture is of contemporary design, he added. The sanctuary has been designed to seat 500 persons.

The membership has sold its present church building to Beth Jacob Synagogue, and still has for sale property at the intersection of Bedford and Columbia streets.

Rev. Mr. Snyder said that includes a double house and a paved parking lot.

Third New Church

This will be the third new church to have been started in Cumberland this year.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church congregation is constructing a new edifice on Washington Street that will cost over $600,000.

First Methodist Church, which has its present church at 127-31 Bedford Street, has broken ground for a new edifice in the 1700-block of Frederick Street that is to cost over $300,000.

Bid Accepted By Board For Electric Work

A bid by the Sterling Electric Company to install lighting equipment in the record room at the Court House and remount light fixtures in two file rooms in the basement was accepted today by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

The Sterling Electric bid was $1,299 for the work while the Queen City Electric Company offered to do the work for $1,375.

The new lights in the record room were made necessary by the rearrangement of new desks and tables in the rooms.

Estimates are also being asked by the commissioners for a new electric circuit for the district forester's office at the Court House and certain repairs.

Martin Gordon, conservation aide, appeared before the board to ask that approval be given for the application of Ronald Y. Lohr Jr., for the installation of a farm pond on his farm on Cresap Mill Road.

The pond is located within 500 feet of the county road and the board's approval is required. The approval of the State Water Resources Board is also necessary. The matter was turned over to J. Walker Chapman, roads supervisor, for investigation.

A report was received from Burza Hanlin, one of the county dog wardens, on his work during June.

He listed 137 dogs being picked up, investigation of five persons being bitten by dogs, three dogs being poisoned, two dogs running deer and one running sheep. Hanlin sold 50 dog tags and made 14 calls. His mileage for the month was 1,351 and gas and oil expenses were $24.15.

Cumberland Chess Club Plans Tourney

The Cumberland Chess Club made plans for a fall Allegany County tournament at a dinner meeting last night at the Algonquin Hotel. Fifteen attended.

It was also announced the club will schedule matches with teams in neighboring towns. The group, which meets Wednesdays at 7:30 p. m. at the Central YMCA, is seeking members. Both men and women are eligible and those under 18 may obtain junior memberships. Currently there are 26 members.

Appropriation Voted

The Senate Appropriations Committee yesterday approved a water projects bill that included $1,751,000 for the Cumberland and Ridgeley flood control project.

NEW AND OLD RAILROAD INTERCHANGES — The new bridge, left center, across the old Lock No. 5 of the C&O Canal will carry trains between the Western Maryland Railway and the B&O Railroad. It will replace the old span across the Potomac River shown in the background. The new connection will be from the main line of the Western Maryland at the depot, across the new bridge and then over the former Community Ball Park area to the Thomas Street section where a connection is to be made with the B&O. The old bridge will be removed as a part of the Cumberland flood protection project.

Services Set At Park By Ministerium

The first of a series of nine union services, sponsored by the Cumberland Ministerial Association, will be conducted Sunday at 6 p. m. in the amphitheatre of Constitution Park.

Preacher of the opening service will be Rev. Dr. E. E. Miller, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren Church. His sermon will be on "God's Great Outdoors."

All services are scheduled to be held on Sundays at 6 p. m. at the park amphitheatre, and will be limited to be completed prior to the band concerts that are held each Sunday at 7:15 p. m. In the event of inclement weather, the services will be held at Kingsley Methodist Church, according to Rev. Carlton M. Harris, pastor of Centre Street Methodist Church, general chairman of the union program.

Preachers and the dates of the other services are:

Rev. Wayne Eberly, Living Stone Church of the Brethren, July 13; Rev. William R. Snyder, St. Luke's Lutheran Church, July 20; Rev. Jacob H. Snyder, Kingsley Methodist Church, July 27; Rev. Robert C. Nimmon, Grace Methodist Church, August 3; Rev. C. Thomas Subock, Trinity Methodist Church, August 10; Rev. W. W. Patterson, LaVale Methodist Church, August 17; Rev. Harold R. McClay, Emmanuel Methodist Church, August 24; and Rev. Maurice D. Robertson, First Presbyterian Church, August 31.

Police Probe Home Entries

City Police are investigating two breaking and enterings, both of which occurred in the Johnstown Heights section of town.

Mrs. Elmer Bopp, 715 Memorial Avenue, notified police that her home was entered sometime Tuesday evening, with the intruder gaining entrance through a second-floor door. A locked dresser drawer in which jewelry was kept, was forced open, but it is believed nothing was taken.

C. B. Pardew, 706 Montgomery Avenue, told police his home was entered the same evening and reported the theft of his wallet, which contained money, cards and personal possessions. Entry is believed to have been made through a back door.

Police are also investigating the theft of two large flower vases from the side of the home of David L. Miller at 307 Baltimore Avenue.

"Blue Baby" Has Long Operation

The four-month old blue baby rushed to Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, last Friday in a trip that had some very hectic moments, underwent a four-hour heart operation this morning.

Upon completing the surgery of the faulty heart, the doctor who operated on Stephen Findling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Findling, 422 Kean Terrace, said the staff was very optimistic on the lad's recovery.

The trip to Baltimore was featured by ambulance trouble when oxygen got down to just a ten-minute supply before State Police rushed more.

Shrimp Feed Set

A shrimp feed will be held at the July meeting of the Tri-State Traffic Club Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Home, 205 Union Street.

County Workers To Vote On Plan For Sick Leave

A "referendum" will be conducted among Allegany County employees on the method they wish to have their annual sick leave handled.

James G. Stevenson, clerk to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, read the board a notice which he has prepared and which will be placed on bulletin boards in the various departments.

New Bridges Feature Of Flood Work

Baltimore Street Structure Opened For Auto Traffic

The Cumberland flood protection project has covered a wide variety of construction work, and among the phases have been an extensive bridge building program.

Today the opening of the Baltimore Street bridge marked the fourth new bridge for vehicles.

There already has been one railroad span constructed with another in the making.

Four auto bridges have been torn down along with one railroad span. Another rail span will be removed in the near future.

Single Span Structures

The three across Wills Creek are single-span, replacing the three that had center pieces in the bed of the stream. They were designed so as to eliminate possibilities of debris being held back during high waters.

The Valley Street Bridge was started April 12, 1954 by the S. T. Brotemarkle Construction Company and completed on April 12, 1955 at a cost of $279,065.67. City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum said today.

Next came the one at Market Street which was started on October 31, 1955 and completed on September 1, 1956, by the H. D. Case Company of Mt. Airy at a cost of $173,527.72.

The temporary wooden bridge across Wills Creek at Baltimore Street was started on April 15, 1957 and opened August 5, 1957.

Two Were Closed

Both Valley and Market Street bridges were closed during construction, but when the Baltimore Street project came it was decided by the Corps of Army Engineers and city officials that the main artery could not be closed.

The old Baltimore Street bridge was torn down during August of last year and construction of the new span was started by the George F. Hazelwood Company on August 27, 1957.

Nuzum said the cost of this bridge is estimated to be $225,334.

In 1955 the new Blue Bridge to West Virginia was constructed by the Cumberland Contracting Company on the top of the industrial dam. The engineers killed two birds with one stone by utilizing the concrete dam for piers for the bridge.

The Blue Bridge, opened to traffic October 25, 1955, was designed by the City Engineering Department and constructed by funds provided by the Maryland State Roads Commission and the West Virginia State Roads Department and the federal government.

Federal Aid Received

Federal aid of $29,952 was contributed to the city when it constructed the Maryland approach at a total cost of $57,107.

Last summer a temporary railroad bridge across Wills Creek just upstream from the Baltimore Street crossing was constructed for the Western Maryland Railway's Connellsville Sub-Division.

The old railroad bridge, which had two piers in the bed of the stream, was demolished last fall. The new one is to be completed in several months.

Another new railroad bridge was constructed just downstream from the Western Maryland Railway depot. It will carry the new Western Maryland-B&O interchange tracks.

To be torn down in August or September will be the existing single track bridge across the Potomac River just downstream from the span carrying the Western Maryland's main line into West Virginia.

Property Sold

Charles Paul Roeder and his wife, Sylvia Marie Roeder, 813 Ashland Avenue, have sold property to John P. Longacre and his wife Patricia A. Longacre. Lots 11 and 12 of the Diller Farms Addition are located on the north side of Ashland Avenue and east side of Piedmont Avenue.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida (Kerns) Siebert; a son, Arthur L. Siebert, and a daughter, Mrs. Harriet Gormer, both at home; a grandson, George L. Siebert, Hagerstown, and a granddaughter, Rebecca L. Gormer, at home.

The body is at the Hafer Funeral Home where services will be conducted Saturday at 3:30 p. m. by Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Church. Interment will be in Greenmount Cemetery.

Palbearers will be Charles A. Piper, Thomas J. McNamee, Thomas L. Keech, Walter A. Fraley, G. Morgan Smith and Leo H. Shipley.

Two Ribbons Cut At Bridge

Two ribbons were to be cut today at either end of the new Baltimore Street Bridge, one by the outgoing Mayor of Cumberland and the other by the incoming Mayor.

Mayor Roy W. Eves invited Mayor-Elect J. Edwin Keech to participate in the ceremony this afternoon.

Invitations were also extended to the new council members who will take office Monday.

It was decided to open the bridge today so that the holiday traffic would not have to use the temporary span.

The truck route bypassing Baltimore Street will remain in effect until an announcement is made later by the Police Department.

Judge Delays Sentencing On Larceny

Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris today held in abeyance sentencing of a Ridgeley man on a larceny charge pending a report by David M. Steele, state probation officer, on the man's background.

Bernard C. Bucy, 36, of Ridgeley, entered a plea of guilty in Circuit Court on a charge of larceny of tools and glass from the Allegany Glass Company valued at $1,243. The larceny took place between April 1 and June 2 while the glass firm was not in operation.

Donald W. Mason, assistant state's attorney, outlined the facts in the case to the court. He said Bucy had been an employee of the glass firm and that after it ceased operations for several months Bucy went on a drinking spree. During this time in an effort to obtain money he went to the glass firm's building and took the tools and glass at different times.

The tools were sold to a local used furniture store and approximately $175 worth of the devices have been recovered. The glass firm was offered to operators of pinball machines by Bucy as a "sale item." Bucy would take the orders, go to the company plant and cut the glass to size and have it delivered by taxicab.

For the tools and glass, valued at $1,243, he received $110 total.

Earl E. Mangos, attorney for Bucy, said his client was married and has one child and has never been in trouble before. The attorney also said that John McGraw, operator of the glass firm, is willing to rehire Bucy and that if the court showed leniency that restitution could be arranged for the unrecovered articles.

Retired Bank Officer Dies

George Adam Siebert, 82, retired assistant secretary and teller of the Liberty Trust Company, died last night at his home, 231 Glenn Street, following an illness of two years.

Mr. Siebert retired in 1956 after having been employed 61 years by the Liberty Trust Company. He held membership in the Maryland Bankers Association.

Born at North Branch, he was a son of the late Adam and Margaret (Logsdon) Siebert. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The dean of local banking employees at the time of his retirement, Mr. Siebert had worked for the Third National Bank here before the Liberty Trust was formed by the consolidation of the Third, German Savings, Dimes Savings and Citizens National banks. He had also been employed by the Times and Allegany Company.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida (Kerns) Siebert; a son, Arthur L. Siebert, and a daughter, Mrs. Harriet Gormer, both at home; a grandson, George L. Siebert, Hagerstown, and a granddaughter, Rebecca L. Gormer, at home.

The body is at the Hafer Funeral Home where services will be conducted Saturday at 3:30 p. m. by Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Church. Interment will be in Greenmount Cemetery.

Palbearers will be Charles A. Piper, Thomas J. McNamee, Thomas L. Keech, Walter A. Fraley, G. Morgan Smith and Leo H. Shipley.

Church Plans Improvement

The Central Methodist Church on South George Street will have its exterior cleaned and restored by a Pittsburgh firm.

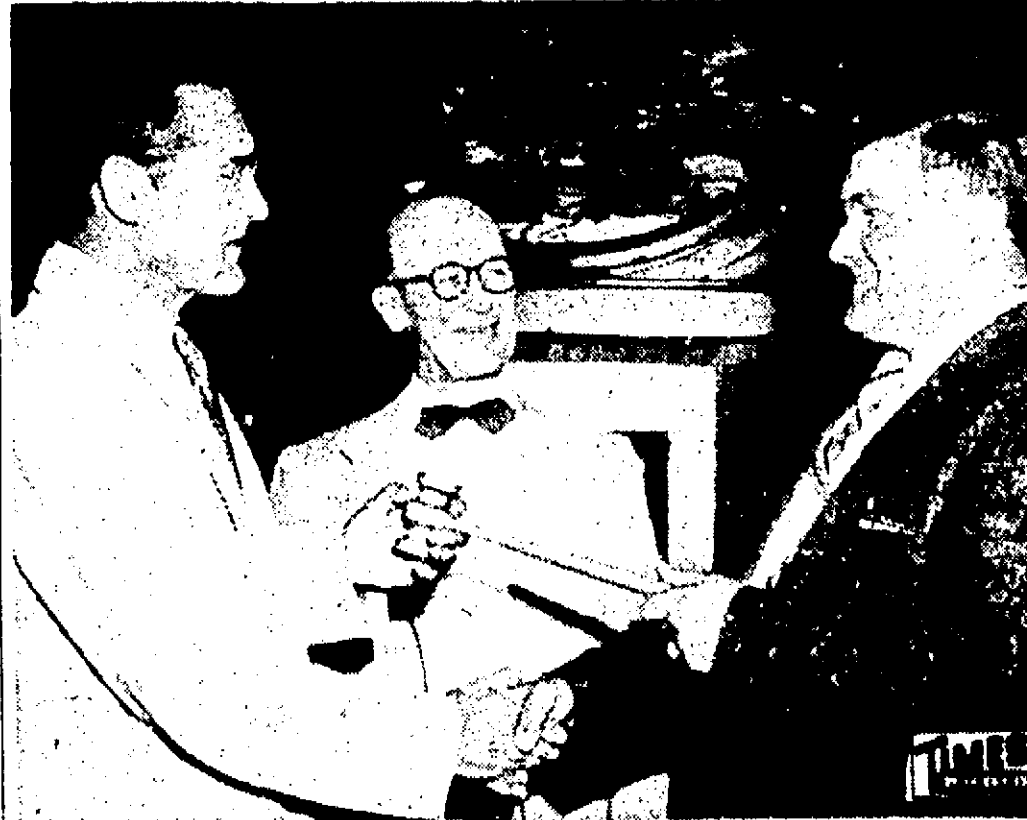

Rev. James D. Elliott, pastor, said the congregation met Sunday and voted to accept the $7,000 bid of the G. P. Graciano Company of Pittsburgh.

The work will include cleaning and pointing of all masonry and brick work on the exterior.

Child Improving

Attaches at Miners Hospital, Frostburg, report that Eleanor Lee Welsh, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welsh, Chamberlayne, is improving.

The child was admitted after being struck by a car in Lonaconing on Monday.

Sales Tax Shows Drop

BALTIMORE (AP)—Sales tax said while decreased collections were expected because of present economic conditions, he was hopeful that an upturn in buying would reverse the trend in the new fiscal year.

Comptroller J. Millard Tawes said the principal loss of revenue was in the construction and heavy industry segments of the economy. He said if the expected upturn in these areas does not take place "there must be a major revision of the estimated revenues for the current and succeeding fiscal years."

Thrill Driver Of Car Faces Murder Count

Man Killed Friend So He Could Use 1958 Model Auto

ODENTON, Md. (AP) — Police prepared today to place a murder charge against a man who admitted beating a friend for the thrill of driving a new car.

The charge was to be placed against John Leo Brady, 25, who used to room with the victim, William Brooks of Severn. Brady was held in Miami, Fla., under $25,000 bond on a federal warrant of car theft.

He was returned to the States after giving himself up to U. S. embassy officials in Havana, Cuba, Tuesday afternoon.

Authorities also arrested Charles D. Boblit, 24, at his Odenton home yesterday, and said he too would be charged with Brooks' murder.

The beaten body of the 33-year-old plastics worker was found in a field near the Little Patuxent River just south of here last night. The FBI and Anne Arundel County police said there was little doubt it was Brooks, who had been reported missing by his landlady last Friday.

What was his motive in beating Brooks with a 16-inch long pipe? "I just wanted to drive a '58 Ford, you see?" Brady told Miami Detective A. A. Geurdack.

Brady, of Upper Marlboro, gave a statement to Miami police recounting the bizarre events surrounding the killing and his flight to evade authorities. It went like this:

Brady and Boblit drove their old sedan to Glen Burnie on June 28. Brady went to a little used dirt road near here and put a log across the road.

Brady waited in the brush until a car stopped, and when the man got out Brady recognized Brooks.

Brady then struck Brooks "not once, but several times." He dragged the victim into the heavy brush and left him near the Little Patuxent River.

Then, according to Brady's statement, he picked up Boblit and the two drove to Lynchburg, Va., where the car was abandoned.

Later he learned Maryland police had talked to his grandmother in Washington, and Brady decided to flee the country. He flew to Miami and then to Cuba.

Robert J. Lally, assistant special agent at the Baltimore office of the FBI, said Brady will be

Bank Robber In Hospital

Accused Man Has Diabetic Condition

BALTIMORE (AP) — Federal authorities report an accused Maryland bank robber is confined to an El Paso, Texas hospital for treatment of a diabetic condition.

Asst. U. S. Atty. William J. Evans said the return of Alvin Curtis Amos III to Maryland for trial on the holdup charges will be delayed indefinitely.

The 20-year-old Amos is accused of robbing the Harundale branch of the Savings Bank of Baltimore of $6,386 last week. He was arrested Saturday in El Paso.

Shortly after the holdup, police picked up Charles F. Lampron, 19, in Glen Burnie and charged him with driving Amos from the robbery to Washington. Lampron is free on $5,000 bail.

Science Pattern Urged

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—A University of Maryland professor says science curricula in public schools should follow a step-by-step pattern through all 12 grades.

Dr. Glenn O. Blough, associate professor of education, told a lecture series audience yesterday that a coordinated plan by elementary, junior high and senior high schools would result in "a better deal in science for young people."

Blough said at present junior and senior high schools too often set up their science programs independently of each other and he described science instruction at the elementary school level as "very inadequate."

The professor also contended that improved science teaching is needed at all levels, including college and university.

Blough urged that scientific problems be related to "things that make a difference to the students."

"More of it needs to be related to living," he said. "It needs to be lifted out of the textbook and out of the classroom and into the students' environment. Books and other instructional aids should be used chiefly as resources."

LYONS, Colo. — (UPI) — A full-scale search for three-year-old Bena Fiddler was called off yesterday when she was found behind a dresser at home.

She said she hid because she didn't want her hair combed.

Injured Boy 'Fair'

Attaches at Memorial Hospital report: Kenneth R. Heavner, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heavner, Romney, in "fair" condition. The youth was admitted Tuesday with injuries suffered when struck by a car in Romney.

Lawrence, Monroe Take Big League Spotlight

Cincinnati's Brooks Halts Braves, Cops Fifth In Row

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

You can file Brooks Lawrence in that thin folder titled "Bad Deals by Frank Lane."

The big right-hander, plucked from the minors by Cincinnati after the St. Louis Cardinals had given up on him, has been the ace of the Redleg pitching staff since, running up a 41-26 record in 2 1/2 seasons.

Lawrence won his fifth in a row, all complete games, Wednesday night with a four-hitter that returned the Redlegs to fourth place in the National League with a 1-0 decision over first place Milwaukee.

Braves' Lead Trimmed

The Braves' lead was trimmed to three games again over St. Louis and San Francisco as the third place Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs 3-2 in the only other NL game scheduled.

In the American League the New York Yankees defeated Baltimore 4-1 as Zack Monroe won in his starting debut. Detroit blanked Kansas City 5-0 on Jim Bunning's four-hitter, and Washington defeated Boston 5-3 despite Ted Williams' hitting. Those were the only AL games scheduled.

Lawrence, 33, the Bull of the Cardinal bullpen when he had a 15-6 record in 1954, was traded to the Reds by Lane, then general manager for the Cards, for pitcher Jackie Collum in January, 1956. He promptly won 19 for the Redlegs in their near-miss pennant rush of '56. Last year he was 16-13.

Now he's 6-3 with two shutouts, giving up just one hit after the third inning at Milwaukee in a 1-0 victory over the Braves. He was 1-0 in a game with young Joey Jay, who lost with a five-hitter.

The Braves beat the Reds 1-0 Tuesday night on Lew Burdette's eight-hitter.

THREE LOOKS—THAT'S ALL—Dick Smith, 18-year-old Walkersville, Md., schoolboy pitcher sensation wears a big grin and a Philadelphia Phillies cap as he holds up a fistful of baseballs after signing with the Phillies for bonus that was said to be in excess of $75,000. Smith, a six-foot, one-inch, 185-pound southpaw, struck out 123 opponents in 49 innings during last high school season. He had an 8-0 record, including a no-hitter. Philly officials said the youth will be sent to High Point-Thomasville team in the Class B Carolina League. He also receives four years' at a college of his choice. (AP Photofax)

Orioles Open Road Trip In Boston Today

BOSTON (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles opened a five-game road trip here today and faced with the task of ruining the major league debut of rookie pitcher Duane Wilson of the Boston Red Sox.

The Orioles, who have knuckled under to a lot of American League pitchers this season, were stopped by another rookie in Baltimore yesterday.

Zack Monroe, 27-year-old New York Yankees right hander, stopped the Birds on five hits before giving way to reliever Ryne Duren in the eighth inning. The only Oriole run in the 4-1 loss was Dick Williams' first homer of the year in the sixth inning.

After scoring 33 runs in five games, the Orioles resorted to their old anemic ways at the plate in the final two games of the Yankee series and scored only a single run in each contest. The team is hitting .236 for the season and has stranded 506 base runners—an average of 7.1 per game.

Baltimore blew three scoring chances against Monroe yesterday before a good weekday crowd of 11,695. Loser Billy O'Dell, now 8-9 for the year, was touched for 11 hits including five by Hank Bauer.

Despite the loss, two Oriole hitting streaks were extended. Williams stretched his to 13 and Bob Boyd hit in his ninth straight game.

Charlie Beamon was to make his first start of the season for the Orioles today after appearing in 17 2-3 innings of relief work. His opponent, Wilson, joined the Red Sox after compiling a 9-3 record at Memphis.

Yank Rookie Trims Birds In Successful Mound Start

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Zack Monroe, a rookie right-hander just shy of his 27th birthday, has stamped himself a success in his first major league start for the New York Yankees. Which is like bootleggin' booze to Peoria, Zack's home town.

Manager Casey Stengel already had a waiting list of starting pitchers on a staff that leads the American League in complete games and shutouts, not to mention that 9½-game first place bulge.

(In case you're wondering, Peoria, a long-time but now late member of the Three-I League, is known for distilleries as well as tractors.)

Beats Birds, 4-1

While Monroe, who perfected a palm ball because he couldn't master a change up pitch, was staying out of trouble for a 4-1 victory over Baltimore Wednesday, the Detroit Tigers knocked off second place Kansas City 5-0 on the four-hit pitching of Jim Bunning. Washington defeated Boston 5-3 despite Ted Williams in the only other AL game scheduled.

In the National League, Cincinnati defeated Milwaukee 1-0, cutting the Braves' lead to three games. San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs 3-2 and closed with in .001 of a percentage point of second place St. Louis in the only other game scheduled.

Duren Mops Up

Monroe, a holdover from the spring rookie school who was farmed to Denver for lack of room on the Yankee staff, had worked only 3 1-3 innings since being recalled June 15, and that was a shutout, no-hit relief job against the A's. Wednesday, he allowed five hits, one Dick Williams' first homer of the season that tied the 1-1, walked five and struck out two in seven innings. Ryne Duren mopped up after Monroe tired.

Billy O'Dell (8-9) gave up a run on three singles in the first, then blanked the Yankees until the seventh, when Tony Kubek's single scored the winning run.

Bunning walked but two and struck out five while winning his fourth in a row for a 6-5 record. Gail Harris hit his sixth homer and Al Kaline, hitless in three games, rapped a RBI double for the Tigers. Ralph Terry lost it for a 5-6 record with the A's, who were without slugging Bob Cerv, out with a broken toe and bruised hand.

Ted Socks 500-Footer

Williams drove in all of Boston's runs, two with a 500-foot homer, his 13th of the year and fifth in six games. The Sox had the tying run on base in the ninth when Faye Throneberry, stabbed Lou Berberet's pinch homer bid for the final out. Camilo Pascual (4-4) won it with relief help. Clint Courtney's two singles drove in three runs for the Senators, who bagged it with two unearned runs in the eighth off Tom Brewer (3-7).

Last Of Big Four Indians Ask Waivers On Lemon, Hurling Era Ends

CLEVELAND (AP)—The last of the Cleveland Indians' once famed "Big Four" is leaving the wigwam and a baseball era here has ended.

The last to go is Robert Granville Lemon, the Californian with an impish grin and a sinking fast ball that made him a 20-game winner in seven seasons. Waivers were asked on him Wednesday and he plans to leave Saturday for San Diego in the Pacific Coast League.

Feller First To Leave

The first to go was Bob Feller, who retired after a 1956 season in which he didn't win a game and lost four.

Last month Mike Garcia was waived out of the league. He is recovering from back surgery in St. Vincent's Charity Hospital.

Still pitching, but not for Cleveland, is Early Wynn whose current 8-6 record for the White Sox includes a 5-4 relief triumph over the Tribe in Chicago Tuesday.

Wynn and Garcia joined Feller and Lemon and the Tribe in 1949, and from that season through 1954, when the Indians won 111 games, a pennant, the Big Four averaged 71½ victories a season.

Feller, past his peak as a fireballer, chipped in .418; Garcia, whose earned-run averages of 2.35 in 1949 and 2.37 in 1952 were lowest among the four, contributed 104 victories; Wynn won 112; and Lemon's total of 128 was the tops.

'Lem' Gets Clobbered

An operation that took 20 pieces of cartilage out of Lem's right elbow last winter failed to restore the old magic to his pitching arm. His lone 1958 game of record was a defeat, making his lifetime record 207-128. In the 25 1-3 innings he worked, he was so clobbered his earned-run average was 5.33.

Frostburg Lions Seek Third Straight Victory

The Lions Club, pacing the Frostburg Little League with a 7-1 record, will tangle with the Elks Club this evening at 6 p. m. on the Little League diamond.

The Lions will be after their third straight victory while the Elks (3-4) will be hoping to move into the .500 bracket with a triumph.

Elks defeated Republican Club, 16-2, yesterday as Ronnie Frazier hurled a two-hitter and fanned eight. Bobby Thompson and Ronnie Robeson had two hits each for the winners while Danny Blair and "Ace" Hertz shared the two bingles for the losing GOP team.

Five Tilts Listed For Dapper Dan Leagues Today

A busy card is on tap in the Dapper Dan Little League today as five games are scheduled.

In 3:30 games this afternoon, the Senators and Braves will clash at East Side Field and the Pirates and Cardinals will tangle at Post Field. In 6 o'clock contests, the Indians will take on the Athletics at Naval Reserve Field, the Tigers and Dodgers will battle it out on the East Side diamond and the Phillies will test the Red Sox in a Penn Avenue tussle.

The Yankees of the Dapper Division moved into the .500 circle yesterday with a 11-1 victory over the Giants at Penn Avenue.

Russ Reynolds gave up just five hits in recording his second mound triumph. He was well-backed with a 16-hit attack which included a home run and single by Gary Luck, a double, single and four-master by Bob Brady and another circuit clout by Tim Wallace.

Logart Loses, Backers Shout For Rematch

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"We want a rematch to erase this horrible decision."

Speaking was Eddie Mafuz, fiery little manager of Cub's Isaac Logart. Mafuz was indignant over Wednesday night's upset split decision in favor of hometown Don Jordan.

The 10-round Hollywood Legion Stadium bout was nationally televised.

May Cost Title Shot

"This injustice may rob us of a chance to get a shot at Virgil Atkins' welterweight crown," Mafuz said in a dressing room interview. "It gives them a chance to duck Logart."

The 25-year-old Cuban is the No. 1 challenger for the welterweight championship.

There were no knockdowns and Logart did what damage was done. The 23-year-old Jordan suffered a bloody nose in the first round and a cut eyelid in the third.

Logart, a 1-2 favorite, went in front with a powerful body attack and occasional left hooks to the face.

Jordan Tires

Jordan appeared to tire in the ninth, but he landed a solid right to the head and a questionable blow to the body. Logart indicated it was a foul but the referee took no notice.

Referee Mushy Callahan and judge George Thomas scored it for Jordan, 95-94 and 97-95, respectively. Judge George Laika had it 97-93 for Logart.

The decision was received with mingled hoots and cheers. Logart's camp was dismayed and even Jordan seemed surprised. He later said he thought he had won the fight.

Jordan weighed 141, Logart 146½.

Tryouts Slated For District 5 VFW Tourney

Players from Hyndman, Everett, Saxton, and Bedford begin tryouts this evening for the Bedford County All-Stars, who will compete against teams from Portage, Lilly, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon (all of Pennsylvania) for the District 5 Veterans of Foreign Wars baseball title in an elimination tournament to determine the district's representative in the state playoffs.

Today's tryout session will begin at 6 p. m. and will be followed by another Monday at the same time. The sessions are scheduled for Hyndman's field.

The state tournament for boys 13 to 15 years of age will start July 31 and continue through August 2.

Dwayne Couchenour, Everett manager, will head the Bedford County team which will consist of 15 players. He will be assisted by the managers from the Saxton, Hyndman, and Bedford clubs.

The squad's 15 members will be selected July 14 as a result of the tryouts.

Those seeking positions from Bedford include Fred McKenny, Tom Sleek, Bill Smith, Ed Faust, Tom Bartlett, and Warren Russell; from Saxton—Lawrence Wyllus, Roy Brown, Robert Ruppert, Fred Sherlock, and James O'Neal; from Everett—Harry Felton, Ronnie Johnson, David Williams, Johnny Lingenteller, James Felton, Larry Stake, Tom Towell and George Wakefield; from Hyndman—Vern Lehman, Reggie Minnick, Ken Leonard, Charles Snyder, John Topper and Edgar Emerick.

Boys participating in the tryout sessions are asked to bring birth certificates to the drill this evening.

Trophy Races Set For Fort Ashby

The winner of the 40-lap feature race and the 20-lap consolation chase will receive trophies during tomorrow's racing program at the Potomac Valley Speedway, Fort Ashby.

The 40-lap affair will cover about 15 miles with 20 or more cars competing on the one-third mile dirt track for the award.

Ninety laps of racing in all are scheduled for tomorrow and the number of cars is expected to exceed last week's entry of 26.

The races will start at 8:30 p. m. DST.

Joey Jay Earns Hard Luck Title

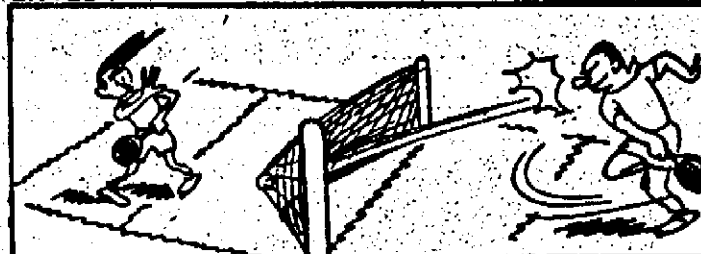

MILWAUKEE (AP)—They're liable to start calling him "Hard Luck" Joey Jay.

The young Milwaukee right-hander has lost three tough games in succession, 2-1, 3-1 and 1-0.

Wednesday night, Jay limited Cincinnati to five hits but dropped the 1-0 verdict to Brooks Lawrence.

Joey's lone triumph was by 2-0 against St. Louis.

LITTLE SPORT

Busy Slate Carded In Pen-Mar League

A busy weekend is in the offing for Pen-Mar Baseball League clubs as four holiday contests are scheduled for tomorrow and four more listed for Sunday. Games both days will begin at 2:30 p. m.

Highlighting tomorrow's activity is the Hyndman at Grantsville contest. Hyndman is deadlocked with Barreilleville for the league lead as each is checked in with tabs of 12-2.

Grantsville, which has its six-game win string snapped Sunday by Zihlman, holds down the loop's third position with a mark of 10-4.

Barreilleville will journey to Zihlman tomorrow to test the Zippers who are knotted with Mt. Savage's Old Germans for fifth place as a result of six victories against nine losses. This will be the second meeting between the two teams with Barreilleville holding in balance an earlier 6-0 win.

Salisbury's Cardinals, perched on the league ladder's fourth rung, will play the visitor's role at Wellersburg. The Cardinals sport an 8-6 register while Wellersburg, resting uncomfortably in seventh position, carries a 3-12 tag. The clubs have split in their other two previous clashes.

Rounding out Fourth of July hostilities is the Mt. Savage at Flintstone contest. The Old Germans have dealt the Farmers two of their 14 defeats.

Flintstone will be attempting to shake its 12-game losing skein in tomorrow's struggle.

Sunday's four tilts have Zihlman seeking to make it 2 to 1 in its series against Mt. Savage on the Germans' field, Hyndman trying to sweep its third from Flintstone, on the Merchants' diamond, Wellersburg angling for its first win of the year over Barreilleville at the latter place, and Grantsville shooting for its third series win over Salisbury at Grantsville.

Segura, Sedgman Tie For Round Robin Lead

LOS ANGELES (AP) Pancho Segura and Frank Sedgman are tied for the lead in the $15,000 Masters Round Robin Pro Tennis Tournament.

Both have 3-0 records in the singles. Segura won his third victory Wednesday night, trouncing Lew Hoad, 6-2, 6-4. Hoad is 0-4.

Defending champion Pancho Gonzales had a hard time defeating stubborn Rex Hartwig, 10-8, 6-8, 6-2. Gonzales is 3-1 and Hartwig 1-4. Ken Rosewall is 1-1 and Tony Trabert 1-2.

Action Heavy This Evening In Rec Loop

There will be action aplenty this evening in the Rec Softball League as three games are billed for the eight-team circuit.

Don McIntyre's and Keech's Drug Stores will battle it out on Post Field. Western Maryland Railway faces National Guard on the Rolling Mill Diamond and Salvation Army will oppose the Ridgeley American Legion in a tilt at Taylor Field. All three games will get underway at 6:15 p. m.

McIntyre's and Western Maryland are tied for second place behind Local 26 with 6-3 records. Ridgeley Legion is in fourth with a 5-4 mark. Keech's is in fifth with two wins, and Salvation Army, with one, follows.

Local 26 padded its league lead with an 11-3 victory over Ridgeley on the Naval Reserve diamond as Don Decker notched the win while tossing a four-hitter.

Gene Hess, losing pitcher, obtained three of his team's hits. Chuck Emery paced the winners' attack with a home run while Del Barbe collected a pair of hits.

Junior O'Neal's double with two on in the home seventh gave the Marine Reserve a 7-6 decision over Salvation Army.

Gene Witt laced a triple and home run and Billy Menges, winning hurler, had three singles for the Marines. Reckley doubled and Twigg singled twice for Salvation Army.

Caseys Snare Lead As Harris Whips Chaney

George (No-Hit) Harris, owner of the City Softball League's only no-hit, no-run pitching performance, came through with a three-hitter yesterday as his Knights of Columbus team downed Chaney's Transportation and moved into the league lead at Fort Hill. The score was 16-1.

The Caseys gave Harris plenty of comfort early in the game by scoring 10 big runs in the first inning. Don Madden, with a homer, double and single, Denny Shuck, with a pair of doubles, Rock Hudson, with a single and double, and Norm Sell with a circuit smash accounted for the brunt of the Knights' 12-hit assault.

Scarpelli, P. Lewis and R. Lewis had the loser's three hits. By virtue of the win the Caseys tied the Old Exports in first place as each are in with 3-2 records.

The Exports recorded their third win by defeating Sports Shoppe, 6-1, in a game at Post Field, as Junior Brelsford gained his third victory on a three-hitter while fanning seven.

George McGregor spanked a double and single and Bill Burke rapped a two-tally homer in the fourth frame for the first runs of the game.

Frank Scarpelli and Chuck Eirich turned in the fielding highlights with several sparkling catches.

Two of the Shoppers' hits were obtained by manager Wayne Holly while Hamilton starred afield for the losers.

Carl Taseff Signs Contract With Colts

BALTIMORE (AP)—Halback Carl Taseff, announcing himself recovered from a broken nose which sidelined him most of last season, has signed a 1958 contract with the Baltimore Colts.

Taseff, a former John Carroll (Ohio) athlete, has played six seasons in the National Football League. He was obtained by the Colts in a 1953 trade with the Cleveland Browns.

Pete Thomson Enjoying Big British Edge

ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England (AP)—Pete Thomson, a 28-year-old Australian, is well along toward putting his seal on the British Open championship for the fourth time.

Thomson led the field during the qualifying with a record-smashing performance. Wednesday he took his position at the head of the 96-man field with a 68 on the first day of the 72-hole tournament proper.

He has 54 holes to go and only a one-stroke lead over Ireland's Christy O'Connor. Threatening from two strokes back are England's 51-year-old Henry Cotton, also a three-time winner; former champion, Max Faulkner, and South Africa's young Gary Player, second in the U.S. Open last month.

America's two qualifiers, Gene Sarazen and Texan Monte Bradley, are way back with a 73 and 76, respectively.

If Thomson wins Friday at Royal Lytham and St. Anne's, he will become the fifth man in modern golf to dominate either the British or American Open championships to the extent

Veteran Boxing Judge Indicted For Conspiracy

NEW YORK—(AP)—Bert Grant, a New York boxing judge for many years, has been indicted and arrested on charges of conspiring with fight manager Hymie Wallman to commit bribery in five bouts involving Wallman's fighters.

Grant, 51, pleaded innocent on his arraignment.

The alleged conspiracy covered five bouts at Madison Square Garden and St. Nicholas Arena in New York from Sept. 20, 1954, to April 7, 1958.

District Atty. Frank Hogan accused Grant of receiving a total of $400 from Wallman, $300 for fights that he judged and $100 for a fight at which he did not officiate.

Wallman was named co-conspirator in the indictment by a New York grand jury that has been hearing an investigation of pro boxing conducted by Hogan's chief assistant, Alfred J. Scotti, and assistant D. A. John J. Bonomi. Hogan said Wallman was granted immunity for testifying. He said Grant refused to waive immunity a month ago and therefore was not permitted to testify.

Boxers managed by Wallman won all five of the fights, four by unanimous decisions. Alex Miteff, an Argentine heavyweight, was a two-time winner and middleweight Moses Ward of Detroit, featherweight Ike Chestnut of New York and lightweight Orlando Zulueta of Cuba each won once.

It was alleged in the indictment that Grant accepted bribes to favor Wallman's fighters. A conspiracy conviction, a misdemeanor, is punishable by a prison term of from one to three years. Conviction of a felony count is punishable by terms of from one to 10 years in each count.

Red Sox To Train At Scottsdale, Ariz.

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have joined the westward movement — at least as far as spring training is concerned.

After 25 years at Sarasota, Fla., the Sox will have their spring camp at Scottsdale, Ariz., in 1959.

General Manager Joe Cronin made the announcement Wednesday.

The Sox succeed Baltimore at Scottsdale. Other teams which train in Arizona are the Cleveland Indians, Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants.

Cresaptown Cops Pony Loop Lead

Cresaptown has a chance of padding its lead in the Bi-State Pony Baseball League when facing Mt. Savage today, 6 p. m., at Cresaptown in a contest moved up from tomorrow because of the Fourth of July holiday.

Cresaptown took over the lead yesterday when racking Ellerslie, 11-4, in the makeup of a game postponed earlier in the season. The triumph was the ninth in 11 attempts for the loop leaders with idle Frostburg falling out of a deadlock for the top slot into second place with an 8-2 log.

Gary Clingerman, Ernie Stouffer and Billy Lewis paced the victory yesterday with two hits each. One of Lewis' shots was a homer. Roger Flanagan was the winning hurler.

West Virginia Amateur Gets Underway Today

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP) — The annual scramble for the West Virginia men's amateur golf title opened here today on the par 70 Old White course. Defending champion Billy Campbell of Huntington was in the qualifying field, battling for the tournament's 32 championship flight positions.

Eight women began match play today, including last year's finalists Berri Long of Huntington and Mrs. Edward Stump of Wheeling.

Colleges Win Three Straight NAIA Titles

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Occidental College of Los Angeles and Lamar Tech State College of Beaumont, Tex., have now won three straight titles in the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Occidental won the track crown at San Diego, Calif. Lamar scored in golf and tennis at Beaumont.

At Alpine, Tex., the NAIA baseball crown went to San Diego State College.

Rubber City Open To Begin Today

AKRON, Ohio. (AP) — The nation's top golfers were set to crack apart the par 71 of the Firestone Country Club course in the $22,000 Rubber City Open starting today.

U. S. Open champion Tommy Bolt, who has played only one practice round since last week's New York tournament where he picked up and was slapped with a $500 fine, said he was in good physical shape. He has been picked to succeed Arnold Palmer, Masters champion who won the Rubber City title last year in a sudden death playoff with Doug Ford.

The 72-hole tournament over the 6,635-yard course opens with a starting field of 137 players. After Friday's 18 holes, the field will be sliced at the midway point to the low 60 pros and 10 low amateurs for the final two 18-hole tests Saturday and Sunday.

Seven of the top eight money winners on the golf tour — all except Ken Venturi — were shooting for the $2,800 first-place check.

Three Tilts Scheduled Today In County Loop

Front-running Stringtown, setting the County Softball League pace with a record of 12-2, will be attempting to pad its margin when tangling with fourth-place Kennell's Mill (8-7) at the latter place in one of three loop games set this evening.

The other two contests have third-place Maple Inn (8-6) going against Homewood Tavern (2-12) on the former's field and runner-up Corriganville (9-4) testing Hyndman (3-11) on the Corriganville diamond.

The three contests are scheduled to get underway at 6:15 p. m.

Thomas Gets Player Award

CINCINNATI (AP) — Frank Thomas, slugging Pittsburgh Pirates' third-sacker with a talent for hitting homers, is the National League's Player-of-the-Month for June.

Thomas, who currently leads the league in homers with 22 and runs batted in with 66, picked up 15 votes in balloting by newsmen and broadcasters.

His closest competitor for the league's monthly award was Dick Farrell star reliever for Philadelphia's Phils, who collected 10 1/2 votes.

Thomas, a starter in the All-Star game next Tuesday, hit at a .275 clip in June, driving in 29 runs. He blasted two homers and brought in seven runs in a June 7 game against Chicago and turned the same trick four days later against San Francisco.

Farrell won four games in June, appearing in 24 1-3 innings and allowing only two earned runs and 13 hits.

Tiddlywinks Catches On As British Game

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
LONDON (AP) — Tiddlywinks used to be for kids.
But in Britain lately the game has caught the interest of muscular athletes, intellectuals, and even the royal family.
To play tiddlywinks you take a firm hold of a bone or plastic disk and snap other disks around a table.
At Cambridge University there is talk, admittedly on the sophomore side, of making tiddlywinks an event of the Olympic Games.
Why the sudden upsurge in the popularity of the humble little game? No one really knows, but possibly the lazy weather of recent weeks has something to do with it. It's more fun than irregular verbs.
Tiddlywinks, a very old game, not figuring conspicuously on the sports pages, got lifted into the academic atmosphere at Cambridge, where students idled away some spare time snapping the disks. Cambridge organized a team—Peter Downes, captain—and claimed the world's tiddlywinks championship. There being

Mrs. Gordon To Handle Fair Entries

Mrs. Martin M. Gordon, Flintstone, has been named to handle the entries for all the exhibits at the Cumberland Fair.
Prior to the opening of the Fair on August 18, she will have a staff of 12 women assisting her.
She is getting the groundwork laid for the huge project which includes entries from Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. A copy of the 110-page premium list has been forwarded to exhibitors of the past couple of years.
She is completing a list of her co-workers, who are of high school or college age. About half of the members of the staff have been chosen.
Books corresponding to the 41st annual premium list will be compiled and distributed to the staff members.
Mrs. Gordon, who has had experience as a clerk in recent years, now has the full responsibility. She will be in charge of entries in exhibits of boys and girls 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, livestock, agriculture, household, vegetables, horticulture, grains, floral, honey, beeswax and maple products.
All exhibits are open to the public with the exception of 4-H and FFA, which are open to members of Allegany and Garrett county clubs.
C. A. Smith, of LaVale, is manager and show secretary for the poultry, pigeon and pet stock department. Entry booths will be located near the entrance to the grounds, at the Exhibit Hall and at the Jockey Club.
Mrs. Gordon said entries will be taken from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. on Monday, August 18, opening day. The judges will have their work done by Tuesday evening and for the next three days Mrs. Gordon and her staff will be busy transferring the judges' decisions onto statements for prize winners.
Winners may receive their awards beginning at 10 a. m. Saturday, August 23.
Anyone who has not received a copy of the premium list and of America, livestock, agriculture, household, vegetables, horticulture, grains, floral, honey, beeswax and maple products may get full information at the

CUF Golden Gifts Unit Organized

An organizational meeting of the Golden Gifts Section of the County United Fund was held last night at the Cumberland Country Club by 60 business and professional leaders of Cumberland.
William C. Walsh presided over the meeting and introduced Lewis J. Ort, president of CUF, as "the happy warrior and originator of the idea of a single fund-raising program."
Ort outlined the 1958-59 CUF campaign and expressed the sympathetic attitude of the whole organization toward the health agencies that have been unable to join CUF because of their national policies.
He also had words of praise for Winfield H. Adam, executive director, and Anne B. Everline, executive secretary of CUF, "for the magnificent job they have done in coordinating the myriad details of CUF's first year of operation, during which they have welded it into an effective and integral part of the life of the area."
Also introduced at the meeting were Captain Daniel S. Biggs of the Salvation Army, who gave a graphic picture of what CUF has meant to its 29 affiliated agencies, and George B. Newman, vice president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, who said:
"We need not be concerned about results in this year's campaign. We just have to approach people, asking them to accept their responsibility to the community—and we all know they will do it."
Walsh characterized those present as "leaders of business and thought. As such," he said, "you are also leaders in giving. You have always demonstrated your willingness to give—to set the example for the whole community."
Golden Gifts captains named at the meeting are Robert E. Barnard, William R. Carscaden, Earl D. Chaney, J. Wallace Close, W. Earle Cobe, William E. Crooks, John A. Cupler, Kenton B. Farrell, John E. Geare, Thomas E. Gilchrist, Robert M. Hainsworth, Charles L. Herath, Dr. W. Royce Hodges, T. J. Klauenberg, John A. Kreiling, Dennis McIntyre, Woodward D. Pealer, Morton W. Peskin, T. Lloyd Smith, and Charles E. Stutzman.

Phone Company Plans To Clean Cable Ducts

The cable ducts of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company will be cleaned as part of a $317,700 expansion project in Cumberland and Frostburg.

A crew from the phone company office in Baltimore has brought a machine here to do the cable duct cleaning work, according to John C. Means, commercial representative.

Cleaning the cable ducts is expected to take about two weeks. The device used in the cleaning can do the work in one hour that three men can do in half a day, according to Mr. Means.

In addition to cleaning the ducts, a pull-wire is being installed for new cable that will be placed in the ducts later.

The new cables, when installed, will provide major relief on circuits to South Cumberland, LaVale and Corriganville.

In Frostburg, the new cables that will be installed in the ducts is a part of the dial system expansion there. These facilities will provide more one and two-party lines to the subscribers in the Frostburg area when the dial system is completed.

Complete placing of the new cables is expected to be finished about August 1.

Cost of the Cumberland part of the expansion will be $213,700, while the Frostburg project will cost $104,000.

This will be the first time the new cleaning machine has been used here, as the ducts are placed permanently and are not opened except for expansion or repair projects.

The work on the two jobs is being supervised by C. R. F. Alter, construction foreman supervisor.

Mr. Means also said telephone crews will begin Monday to cut in the permanent cables on the new bridge on Baltimore Street.

He said crews will work around the clock to complete the work, which is expected to take 14 days. The work will be confined to the underneath section of the bridge and will not involve any traffic problems according to Mr. Means.

Three cables which serve West Side, Ridgeley, Cresapstown, McMullen Highway, and long-distance lines to Oakland and Parkersburg, W. Va., will be spliced into the permanent cables at each end of the bridge.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you won't think this is a very big problem, but it's getting on my nerves. I have a husband and four boys and they all have the habit of letting their shoes drop off under the table, in a corner or wherever they take the notion. Sometimes they can't even remember where they left them. I was trained to put my shoes on in the morning and they stayed there until I took them off to go to bed. Is this a new style or should I yell my lungs out to make them keep their shoes on?

TRULY PUZZLED

DEAR TRULY: "Yelling your lungs out" takes more energy than rounding up five pairs of shoes. But if the "sole-searching" annoys you, tell each barefoot boy, "Make yourself comfortable, Baby"—but keep track of your own shoes!

DEAR ABBY: I have read so much bunk in your column about "how to keep a husband home" that I must speak up. I have been married for 27 years and am therefore qualified to speak from experience. My formula is KEEP 'EM BUSTED! Thank you.

EXTRAVAGANT

DEAR EXTRAVAGANT: It is no trick to keep a husband "home" ... you can also tie him to the bedpost with a clothesline. The trick is to keep him happy!

DEAR ABBY: We have a son 19 who was a model boy up until three months ago. He was interested in sports, never drank or smoked or ran around with girls. My wife thought he should be more social so she got together with her next-door neighbor and together they arranged a date for him with this neighbor's younger sister. She was a young widow of 29 who needed companionship. Since those two got and together they arranged a date before three in the morning. He smokes and drinks and has lost his moral standing. What should we do about this?

VERY TROUBLED

DEAR VERY: You can't buy back the introduction, but you can try to talk some sense into his head. This woman is too old for him. Appeal to the woman's sense of decency (if she has any).

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, Maryland, to be held in the City Hall at 10:00 o'clock A.M., E.D.S.T., August 4, 1958, an ordinance will be introduced providing for the closing of an unnamed twelve foot (12') alley running parallel with and 138 feet distant from the Northwest side of Frederick Street, as shown on a plat of Welch Home Second Addition, between the Northeast side of Belvidere Avenue and the Southwest side of Foster Avenue, a distance of 300 feet.

The ordinance will also provide for the appointment of Commissioners to award compensation to any person or persons owning property on said plat of said street which may be closed and who may be affected thereby.

TV Demands Slim Figures For Its Stars

By SAUL PETT

NEW YORK (AP)—At lunch the other day, singers, Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence, winced when their guest ordered steak.

They ordered poached eggs, dry toast and skimmed milk. Why the steak, since neither looked heavy? "You have to be thinner for TV," said Lawrence, speaking for himself and his bride of six months. "We've been playing night clubs lately and our weight was fine for that. But the TV picture tends to broaden you."

Beginning July 15, for eight weeks, the young couple replaces the Steve Allen Show on NBC. It's the first time they've had their own show. Naturally, they're excited and nervous and full of plans. One is losing weight.

"You don't believe this," said Lawrence, "but a fellow told me people look different on NBC and CBS. It has to do with their test patterns and basic picture. CBS tends to make the performer look taller and thinner. NBC broadens and shortens you slightly. The NBC picture adds about five pounds to your figure and removes about an inch in height."

Immediately, the Lawrences' luncheon guest looked up from his steak. Zounds! he thought. This could be the TV story of the year. An expose of distortion by our major networks. Was NBC really more caloric than its rival?

Later, the story was checked out with technicians at NBC and CBS. Yes, they said, they had heard this before from viewers and performers. No, they said, it just isn't true. If there is any difference in the network pictures it results from distortion in the viewers' sets. (You lose more darn good stories by checking!)

Meanwhile, back at the restaurant, the Lawrences discussed their new show. It would be largely musical, with guests and a thin line of continuity.

The question brought a taut moment of silence. Steve finally answered: "It will be 'Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme.' It seems more natural that way, you know, like Burns and Allen."

Had there been any family discussion of the billing?

"For about five minutes, only," said Lawrence.

"I really think Steve should be billed first," said Eydie. "It does seem more natural that way. Besides, I wouldn't photograph well with two broken arms."

Simmons Fined $10 For Assault

Jesse H. Simmons, Ridgeley real estate and insurance dealer, was fined $10 at a hearing yesterday before Justice of the Peace Madelyn Buzzle in Keyser on a charge of assault and battery against Rev. Harold L. May, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Church, Ridgeley.

H. G. Shores, Keyser attorney who represented Simmons appeared the verdict to Mineral County Circuit Court.

Rev. Mr. May secured a warrant on the charge Tuesday morning, charging Simmons struck him following a meeting the night before at the Ridgeley Rod and Gun Club.

Double Beaten At Trick Three

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service
The game was duplicate and East's double of the two club bid was an effort to pick up a top score.

West opened the queen of spades and North's ace took the trick.

Rev. Mr. May secured a warrant on the charge Tuesday morning, charging Simmons struck him following a meeting the night before at the Ridgeley Rod and Gun Club.

trick. The king of clubs was taken by West's ace and West shifted to the ace of hearts. Dummy played the ten and after East signaled with the six, West continued with the three spot.

South let this run around to his nine and promptly led back a third heart. He finessed dummy's jack and East ruffed. East played king and one spade. West ruffed and led his last heart. South overruffed East's eight and pulled the last trump. Now dummy's jack of spades furnished a discard for his losing diamond and he made his contract.

West was critical of East's double, but East squelched him by showing him how he could have beaten the hand at trick three. See if you can figure out the defense.

If you can't figure it out, here it is. All West had to do was to lead a low heart rather than the ace. Rather a double dummy play but a winner. South could do anything he liked, but he would have had no means of keeping the defense from tashing a diamond trick in addition to the others.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

North East South West
1♣ Pass 1♦ Pass
2NT? Pass?

You, South, hold:
AQ54 ♠ A2 ♦ KJ765 ♣ 432
What do you do?

A—Bid three diamonds. There just might be a slam in this hand if partner has the right cards. You will pass if he bids three no-trumps.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Partner raises the three-diamond bid to four. What do you do now?

Live Dangerously And Take Tricks

By OSWALD JACOBY

Take a look at the West hand. South has opened one heart. North has responded one spade. South has jumped to two no-trump and North has taken him to game.

What suit do you lead?

The diamond lead is certainly tempting. The queen-jack-ten-nine combination always is a really good opening lead and if you want to play safe all the time you had better lead that queen of diamonds.

If you want to play winning bridge your right opening lead is the four of clubs. This lead may well cost you a trick but it is also very likely to set the contract. You expect South to hold the king of clubs, but it probably won't be guarded more than twice. Hence, if your partner can get the lead with a spade he will be able to lead a club back.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Friday, July 4, 1958

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Today has some tricky influences. Neither very helpful nor necessarily regarding, however. You will have to be a smart manager and a quiet thinker if you are to make the most of opportunities. Avoid waste. Look!

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Some mildly friendly vibrations still linger from yesterday but, on the whole, you would be advisable to be careful in order to avoid errors and make the day's good points count.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—No heavy decisions or promises! You will gain more if you slow up sufficiently in work and other matters to gather more knowledge and replenish energies, then go ahead.

JUNE 22 to JULY 21 (Cancer)—You may have to give more care and attention to details than usual if you want to get the best possible results from your efforts. Don't brood over fancied injuries.

JULY 22 to AUGUST 21 (Leo)—Feeling and worry do not hasten achievement or the completion of tasks. Begin the day with optimism and confidence and you will accomplish ably. Don't waste time.

AUGUST 22 to SEPTEMBER 21 (Virgo)—Proper allocation of all activities on your schedule will make work simpler and get you through quicker with more time to spare for rest, recreation and the forthright, confident in action.

SEPTEMBER 22 to OCTOBER 21 (Libra)—Liberalize the essentials on your agenda before you start the day and you will save time, anxiety, money. Don't let yourself be inveigled into unwise schemes.

OCTOBER 22 to NOVEMBER 21 (Scorpio)—A day you can handle capably and profitably. Be alert to the day's opportunities. Forethought, confidence, plenty of sound initiative and will power will help to solve difficult problems.

NOVEMBER 22 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—Seize up on the favorable side—especially in familiar activities. Deal with the day's problems with foresight will make the greatest progress.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 21 (Capricorn)—Forget minor setbacks during this pleasant period. There are many pleasant gains promised to those who are cooperative.

JANUARY 22 to FEBRUARY 21 (Aquarius)—Some new situations—mostly benefits. Get urgent and important matters altered in quickly. Those with foresight will make the greatest progress.

FEBRUARY 22 to MARCH 21 (Pisces)—Don't dwell on problems. Regular daily tasks and possible added duties need not worry you. Be your genial, helpful self and all will go well. Just one admonition: Look out for deception through fascination or sympathy.

YOU HORN TODAY are of a kindly nature, industrious, usually methodical and adept at deductive reasoning. You are innately idealistic, imaginative; deal and love to have order where you live. You make excellent lawyers, writers, chemists, nurses and politicians. Don't anticipate trouble. Birth date of: Nathaniel Hawthorne, author; Calvin Coolidge, 30th, U. S. President. Parents Receive Cash Settlement

An award of $350 in the settlement of a $1,000 damage suit in Allegany County Court has been made to the parents of a local child who was injured in a store accident here January 5, 1957.

Frederick H. and Cleo D. Knippenberg, parents of Nancy Knippenberg, 543 Columbia Avenue, brought the suit against Mary L. Messman, 602 Fairview Avenue, store clerk, and the G. C. Murphy Company.

About 2:15 p. m. on that date the mother and her child were walking past a closed door in the store which was opened by the clerk, hitting the girl on the forehead.

She sustained a cerebral concussion, according to the declaration, and incurred hospital expense and lost time from her schoolwork.

Hugh A. McMullen was attorney for the plaintiff.

Union Asks Conciliation Service Aid

The U. S. Conciliation Service has been asked by Local 453, Teamsters Union, to aid in negotiating a contract with the Koppers Company for its tie treating plant at Green Spring, according to C. E. Stutzman, Local 453 business agent.

He said the men took a strike vote after rejecting a three-cent wage offer made by the company.

The local, Stutzman said, has applied to the international union for strike sanction and when it is received there will be a work stoppage unless a satisfactory contract can be negotiated.

The present pact covering some 85 workers of the plant expired June 1. Hourly wages at the wood preserving unit range from $1.52 to $2.09 an hour.

Stutzman received word yesterday that Conciliation Commission-er James Holden has been assigned to the dispute and will attempt to arrange a meeting soon.

Dr. Reddick Files Appeal On Conviction

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dr. Robert H. Reddick, scheduled to be sentenced on a forgery conviction today, filed an eleventh hour appeal yesterday.

The 43-year-old former State psychiatrist who once headed a rump board of homeopathic medical examiners, challenged the jurisdiction of the Criminal Court in bringing the charges against him.

He was convicted by a jury of forgery and unlawfully placing a public seal on a medical license. He was accused of having sold the license to a New York auto mechanic for $5,000.

Dr. Reddick's 11-page petition filed in Criminal Court recited some of his own past history as well as that of Maryland law. Among other things, he charged he was not given a fair trial, was denied the right to a copy of the indictment and was accused of a crime that is not on Maryland law books.

NEW ASSISTANT—Miss Nancy Marsteller of Stewartstown, Pa., is the new assistant home demonstration agent for Allegany County. Miss Mary P. Wise, home demonstration agent, said she will be in charge of Girls 4-H work. She was graduated from the University of Delaware last month. In 1955 she was chosen Peach Queen of Pennsylvania and later won the national title in the finals at York, Pa.

Alarm Control Unit Arrives

Automatic equipment to control this city's fire alarm system has been delivered to Central Fire Department, according to Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker.

The equipment was purchased at a cost of $3,800 from the Gamewell Company, which will send a factory engineer here soon to make the installation.

The new control system is the most modern available, and marks the biggest improvement made in alarm equipment here for 40 years, Chief Parker said.

Chief Parker said that if one circuit was affected with the old board, all four circuits went out and left the city without alarm service until the trouble was found and corrected.

The new cabinet will place circuits back in service automatically and will receive alarms from broken circuits if it can find an alternate route to the control box.

If an entire circuit is knocked out, equipment is available in the cabinet to indicate the source of the trouble and its approximate location.

When a box is tripped, the alarm will be sent simultaneously to all four stations.

Judge Pays Fine

JACKSON, Miss. — (UPI) — James L. Spencer's first act after being sworn in yesterday as municipal judge was to pay a $1 fine for overparking.
